College Board Feels Second Campus Vital

Initial Expansion Of Kentfield Facilities Plotted

Marin Junior College District trustees have abandoned consideration of expanding College of Marin entirely on its present campus and adjacent property, it appeared last night.

This came out as Wesley Hull of the architect firm of Falk and Booth of San Francisco, hired as consultants on campus expansion, presented a report on possibilities of abandoning the present site or operating two schools—one at Kentfield and the other elsewhere in the district.

The report noted that conversations between trustees and architects had eliminated the possibility of sufficient expansion at Kentfield to handle enrollment that the consultants think will reach 4,500 students within a decade.

The architects displayed a plan which showed how the present campus could be expanded to accommodate 2,500 students, which would later have to be augmented by a separate campus elsewhere. Property on Laurel Avenue would have to be purchased for parking facilities for students.

There are approximately 24 homes in the area off Laurel Avenue which would have to be purchased for the expansion of the school. President Stephen E. Epler said the homes, in the Grant Park area, have a low real estate value because they are in flood area next to Corte Madera Creek.

More acreage would be purchased across College Avenue

CENSUS FINDS IT ALL COMES OUT IN WASH

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Census Bureau reported today that five out of eight American households have washing machines and fewer than half of them are the old-fashioned wringer type.

Reporting on the 1960 census of housing, the bureau also said that 86 per cent of the nation's 53 million households had at least one TV set and 91 per cent had at least one radio.

The April, 1960, survey also showed that about one household in six had a home freezer separate from its refrigerator. It said home food freezers are "in a stage of expanding use.

Recruiters Doing Brisk Business

All Marin County recruiting offices reported brisk business in inquiries today but only the Air Force seemed to be getting really solid customers.

Sgt. James Holly, test examiner temporarily in charge of the Air Force office at 819 A Street, San Rafael, reported he tested four promising applicants this morning.

"Several will be leaving on Monday," he said. "We're getting plenty of queries. Things are definitely much brisker than usual."

But Yeoman 2c Lowell Hickock, Coast Guard recruiter at the same address, said he's doing business mainly with "shoppers" so far and observed:

"It looks as though nobody's jumping till they know more. As a matter of fact, most of the recent inquirers are reservists in other services who seem to think the Coast Guard might be better."

The flood of inquirers was reported unabated at both Army recruit offices at the same address, and the Navy at 1116 Fourth Street, San Rafael, but with the emphasis continuing on "maybe later."

Lt. Col. Frank G. Lyman, district coordinator for Selective Service in San Francisco, said that "no increased draft call has come through yet for Marin or any other county."

Unanimous Approval Of Buildup

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The House Armed Service Committee voted unanimously today to grant President John F. Kennedy's request for authority to call up 250,000 reservists and spend an extra 958 million dollars for planes, ships and missiles.

Moving swiftly to counter Russia's threat to Berlin, chairman Carl Vincent (D-Ga.), said he would ask the House to approve the legislation on the reservists Monday.

He said the other bill providing the money for Kennedy's defense buildup would be taken before the rules committee Tuesday.

Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara praised the swift action in a brief news conference afterwards.

NATO ALLIES

He said also that talks designed to get America's NATO allies to strengthen their forces "so far have proceded very well."

"I am very satisfied and very encouraged at their reaction," he said.

The Senate was scheduled to pass the two key points of Kennedy's preparedness program this afternoon.

McNamara earlier testified before the House group in a closed door session.

He said the military buildup was aimed at discouraging Russia from pressing the Berlin crisis to the point of war and at preparing U.S. forces if fighting should break out.

A-WEAPONS

The defense secretary said that the United States must build up its non-nuclear fighting strength because Soviet leaders are counting on the fact that the Free World would not use nuclear weapons except to meet a direct threat to its survival.

He said this was one reason the Russians are hoping to create a split within the free world ranks by "carefully measured" threats to Berlin.

One bill would give Kennedy authority to buy an additional 958-million-dollars worth of planes, ships and missiles. The other would empower him to call as many as 250,000 reservists to active duty, retain other military personnel in service for an additional year and stretch out reserve training periods.

McNamara said the buildup had a two-fold purpose: "To deter the Soviets from pressing a Berlin crisis to a point of conflict, and to become better able to deal with any conflict which might nevertheless occur."

Despite the swiftness with which Congress has tackled the president's requests, there were rumblings of discontent over the defense efforts of the European allies.

Officials privately acknowledged the uncertainty of several factors:

1. West Germany will not be

WINE CELLAR

Hub Family Fixes Up Private Bomb Shelter

By RANDALL GOULD

If bombs fall on Marin County the Dr. L. J. Giubbini family expects to be calm, cool and well adjusted to life in its private bomb shelter at 228 Crescent Drive, San Anselmo.

The shelter is older than the menace, dating back 53 years to 1908.

Since the Giubbinis have lived in their present home for 18 years they have had plenty of time to familiarize themselves with what was originally a wine cellar — thus protected with stout concrete walls.

But only about four months ago the family decided, mainly on instigation of Mrs. Giubbini, who was a "block mother" during the Korea hostilities, that here was the ideal location for a bomb shelter.

"Nobody makes contact with me any more about civil defense," said Mrs. Giubbini, who herself went to Marin civil defense headquarters finally to check up on what should be done about food supplies. "I got to thinking what I could do."

After considering various possibilities, including possible use of a vacant storeroom in the house or putting a concrete cover over the swimming pool, the family decided that in the disused wine cellar there was an ideal spot.

"There are only four of us in the family now, with my husband and son Eddie, 9, and counting our poodle Mimi," said Mrs. Giubbini. "Our shelter can look after 10 people."

Mrs. Jean Smith, civil defense secretary to Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos, says Mrs. Giubbini needn't worry about being overlooked any longer in civil defense work. Volunteers are being sought to reactivate the county's disaster plan.

During the current period of public apprehension, Mrs. Smith has learned of several improvised or recently constructed bomb shelters in Marin. She said she also has a listing of contractors and house builders who stand ready to provide bombproof shelters on demand.

This and other information is freely available to the public, says Mrs. Smith. But don't go to the former office of the county administrator at 1000 Fifth Avenue, San Rafael, she warns. Mrs. Smith's office is

TUNIS DISPUTE

De Gaulle Rejects U.N. Intervention

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — France abruptly withdrew today from a U.N. Security Council debate on the French-Tunisian dispute. The council disregarded the boycott, however, and went ahead with its discussion.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (UPI) President Charles de Gaulle today formally rejected any intervention by the United Nations in France's dispute with Tunisia over the Mediterranean naval-air base of Bizerte.

The French rejection came in an official statement issued in Paris a few hours before the Security Council was to meet on new Tunisian charges of aggression against France and to hear a first-hand report from U.N. Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold on the situation. (See also story on page 7.)

A French Foreign Office spokesman said he did not know whether France would boycott the meeting or what other counter actions were planned.

The statement was issued shortly before Adlai E. Stevenson, U.S. ambassador to the United States, arrived in Paris ahead of schedule for talks on "world problems" with de-Gaulle. His arrival today came as a surprise—he had not been expected until tomorrow.

The French statement charged Tunisian President Habib Bourguiba with trying to obtain through the United Nations what he had failed to get by force of arms. It said the only way to settle the dispute was through direct negotiations between Paris and Tunis.

Gate Bridge Gets Approval On Approach

Directors of the Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District today received federal approval of their application for widening of the Marin County approach to the Golden Gate Bridge, which is on federal property.

Bids for the $1,200,000 job will be called for within 10 days, board president Matthew A. Graham said.

The project would include an aqueduct and widening of about 1,000 feet of the north approach. Official approval was given by the Defense Department in Washington, D.C.

Today's meeting was held in Santa Rosa in the chambers of the Sonoma County Board of Supervisors where the meeting was presided over by L. E. Castner, Sonoma County representative. Following lunch at the Flamingo Hotel as guests of city and chamber of commerce officials, the directors were scheduled to visit the Sonoma County Fair where the day was designated as Golden Gate Bridge Day.

Christmas? Hub Chamber Getting Ready

Only 128 shopping days till Christmas.

San Anselmo Chamber of Commerce members yesterday, planning ahead, decided to install Christmas decorations across Tunstead Avenue from Sir Francis Drake Boulevard to San Anselmo Avenue. The cost will be about $1,800, said George G. Washburn, secretary-manager.

Large decorated Christmas trees will be placed at the Hub intersection on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard and on Bolinas Avenue. Washburn said the City of San Anselmo agreed to install the decorations for no charge. The chamber would donate $800 from its funds and business men will donate the rest, said Washburn.

The chamber also announced that fall San Anselmo Bargain Days will be held on Oct. 19, 20 and 21.

LEAN AND HUNGRY LOOK MAY HIDE HIGH MORALS

OXFORD, England (AP)—Thin people have higher moral standards than fat people, a lecturer in social psychology told the Conference of Modern Churchmen yesterday.

Michael Argyle said investigations have shown thin and bony people generally have superegos. He he said this means they have higher standards of conduct, are better able to resist temptation and experience stronger guilt feelings.

"We should come to regard guilty feelings as part of the personality to be lived with," he continued, "and to disregard those guilt feelings which we know to be caused by trivial acts of no moral significance."

He cited drunken driving as a confusing crime to many people.

"Drunken motoring, although illegal and extremely antisocial, appears to cause no guilt feelings whatsoever," said the lecturer.

Senate Passes Anti-Crime Measures

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Senate whisked through without opposition today a four-bill package containing major portions of Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy's program to combat organized crime.

All four bills, providing stiff new penalties for interstate gambling and crime, were passed by voice vote and sent to the House.

The bills would:

Make it a crime, subject to fine of $10,000 or five years in jail, to transport betting paraphernalia across state lines.

Make it a crime to threaten or intimidate a witness to prevent him from testifying in investigations of organized crime by the FBI, Justice or Treasury departments.

Grant immunity from prosecution to witnesses who testify before courts or grand juries, permitting law officials to better gather evidence against the person responsible for an illegal act.

Prohibit the transmission through wire communications of betting information.

Allies In Talks On Berlin Crisis

PARIS (UPI) — U.S., British, French and West German officials began preparatory talks today for the Aug. 5-7 foreign ministers' conference on the defense of Berlin.

Foy Kohler, assistant secretary of state for European affairs, represented the U.S. at today's first closed-door session. Other meetings are set for later this week.

The western talks aim at formation of Allied strategy before the Soviet Union signs its threatened peace treaty with East Germany.

Chrysler Taken Over By Outside Directors For 1st Time In History

DETROIT (AP) — Outside directors—men who hold no management positions with the company—have taken control of the Chrysler Corp. for the first time since the late Walter Chrysler founded the auto firm in 1925.

Following a meeting in New York yesterday the corporation announced the resignation of L. L. Colbert as chairman, president, chief executive officer, chief operating officer and director.

The directors installed Lynn A. Townsend as president and abolished the rest of Colbert's jobs, even to reducing the number of board members by one—to 17.

For Colbert they created a new post—chairman of the board of Chrysler of Canada, Ltd. This will enable him to keep his stock options (45,000 shares at $52.49 a share, slightly above the present market price) and to remain eligible for his Chrysler pension—$92,250 a year when he retires nine years hence.

The action came exactly one year after Chrysler disclosed it had fired its previous president, William C. Newberg, because he owned half interests in two companies whose sole business was making parts for Chrysler.

Newberg was dismissed June 30, 1960, but it was not until July 29 that the corporation spelled out the reason.

Townsend's elevation came concurrently with the company's announcement it had made a 6.2-million-dollar profit in the second quarter of 1961. Chrysler lost 21.9 million dollars in the first quarter.

Townsend, 42, who became administrative vice president last December, has been the chief architect of a drastic cost-cutting program at Chrysler.

Tunisian U.N. Demands Get Backing

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) —A bloc of 36 Asian and African nations pressed the U.N. Security Council today to back Tunisia's demand that France pull all her troops out of Tunisia and give up her huge naval and air base at Bizerte.

Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold was expected to open the emergency council session with a report on his disappointing peace mission to Tunisia. U.N. sources said he would criticize the French, who refused to confer with him.

Yugoslavia joined 36 of the 46 Asian-African nations in the U.N. in a letter to the council president, Leopoldo Benites of Ecuador, demanding that France, as a first step, obey the council's call to withdraw her troops to the positions they held before last week's fighting.

The council was urged further to acknowledge Tunisia's right "not to tolerate the presence of foreign forces or foreign military bases" and to call for quick negotiations.

Hammarskjold returned last night from a flying visit to Tunisia that Tunisian officials said did little to bring a solution to the explosive crisis.

French military authorities in Tunisia refused to even see the secretary-general and the French government declined to invite him to Paris for talks.

WORLD NEWS IN BRIEF

Rifle Death

EUREKA (AP)—Danny Warren Vining, 11, of Orange, was fatally wounded last night when he walked in front of a rifle as his 14-year-old sister pulled the trigger.

Deputy Coroner Walter Shocker said the girl, Sherry Vining, told him she had emptied the clip from the weapon and didn't know there was a shell in the chamber.

Austria Pays Off

VIENNA, Austria (AP) — Austria concluded the first phase of its reparations to the Soviet Union yesterday.

Chancellor Alfons Gorbach received the Soviet Charge d'Affaires, G. N. Michejev, and informed him that Austria has finished its shipments of 150 million dollars worth of manufactured goods to the Soviet Union. This was stipulated in the 1955 Austrian peace treaty.

Austria still delivers crude oil to the Soviets at the rate of 500,000 tons yearly until 1965.

Tunisia Turning?

TUNIS (UPI) — The Bizerte crisis set the stage today for Tunisia to turn from the Western camp to the neutralist fold of the Arab League.

Worsening relations between Tunisia and France has sparked an exodus of French residents. About 100 have been leaving each day by plane and at least 2,000 are due to leave by ship by Sunday.

State Fire Deaths

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Glenn B. Vance, state fire marshal, said today that 427 Californians died in fires last year, an increase of 9 per cent over the average of the last 10 years.

Vance, in a report to Gov. Edmund G. Brown, said a large portion of the increase was attributed to the disastrous San Francisco hotel fire in which 19 persons died.

The report said that 66.8 per cent of those who died were adults. The largest number, 106, was in the 45 to 64 age group, while 61 were babies and children under 4.

Beauty Deadline

LONG BEACH (AP)—Judges at the International Beauty Congress, dazzled all week by lovely faces and shapely figures, face their roughest task tonight—picking the winner.

Besides the honor, the girl chosen as Miss International Beauty receives a $10,000 cash prize.

For many of the 52 contestants, the final night of the annual beauty pageant will be an anticlimax. Thirty-seven of the girls, eliminated in last night's semifinals, will view the proceedings from the sidelines.

Awaits Word On Plane

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk expects a reply from Cuba soon to the U.S. request for return of the Eastern Air Lines plane which was hijacked and flown to Havana with its passengers and crew last Monday.

All aboard the aircraft have been returned to the United States except the hijacker. He took refuge with the Castro government.

Peace Talks Snag

GENEVA (UPI)—The 14-nation Laos peace conference today shelved the first article of a proposed neutrality declaration for the southeast Asian kingdom after a bitter East-West dispute over SEATO showed no accord was possible.

British conference co-chairman Malcolm MacDonald and Communist Chinese deputy foreign minister Chang Han-fu traded heated speeches over a Soviet demand that SEATO's "protective umbrella" protocol covering Laos be specifically abrogated in the neutrality statute.

Congo Meeting

LEOPOLDVILLE, The Congo (UPI)—The followers of the late Premier Patrice Lumumba were reported confident today they would wield enough power in parliament to name the premier of a new Congo government.

Parliament was entering its third day of sessions today behind the locked and heavily guarded doors of Livanium University.

The leftist leader of Stanleyville, Antoine Gizenga, self-styled political heir of Lumumba, was said to have complained that the security precautions were not enough.

Judge Indicted

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Municipal Judge Lynn W. Johnston, 42, of Downey has been indicated by the county grand jury. He is accused of offering leniency to four young women in prison in return for intimacies.

The jury indicted Johnson yesterday on four counts of bribery. If convicted, he could be disbarred and sentenced to a prison term of 1 to 40 years.

Chandler's Estate

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The will of screen actor Jeff Chandler, leaving a gross estate of $600,000 in trust for two daughters, has been admitted to probate.

Superior Court Judge Clarke E. Stephens admitted the document yesterday. It was signed June 9, 1959. The daughters, Jamie, 14, and Dana, 11, were born to him and his former wife, Marjorie Hoschelle Chandler, an actress.

The actor died June 17. He was 42.

Cocktail Headaches

CHICAGO (UPI) — A single cocktail can cause a migraine headache in some persons, a doctor has reported.

Dr. Charles Kunkle, writing in the current Journal of the American Medical Assn. said "ability of alcohol to trigger a migraine headache is noted by only a few patients."

He said the response is more evident in persons with "the 'cluster' headache. In these the vulnerability to alcohol is ordinarily evident only during the period when headaches are occurring in rapid succession (in a cluster) and may be brought out by even one cocktail."

GOP Planning Attack On Aid Financing

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republicans have laid plans for an attack on the way President John F. Kennedy proposes to finance his long-term foreign aid program.

The Republicans plan to launch their attack on the Senate floor, where the program faces a close vote. They hope to turn it back, or at least to curtail it sharply.

The program may face even rougher going in the House, where debate probably will start next week.

The administration seeks authority to make up the 8.8 billion dollars in loan commitments over a five-year period. Of this total, Kennedy wants to borrow 7.3 billion dollars from the Treasury without specific year-to-year congressional appropriations. The balance would come from repayment of post-war loans.

The House Foreign Affairs Committee gave the program the green light yesterday. The action, by undisclosed vote, was tentative, but formal approval is expected Tuesday.

Oxygen used in the steel industry has increased in the last 10 years from 127 cubic feet per ton of steel to 550 cubic feet per ton, says Steelways, magazine of the American Iron and Steel Institute.

Britain Reported Ready To Join Common Mart

GENEVA (AP)—Plagued by another ecomonic crisis Britain was expected to tell its continental trade partners in the European Free Trade Assn. today that it plans to open negotiations to join the booming rival Common Market.

Prime Minister Harold Macmillan is scheduled to set forth the British position in the House of Commons Monday, and precautions were taken to prevent a leak beforehand. But Reginald Maudling, president of the British Board of Trade, and Edward Heath, No. 2 man at the foreign office, were to give the other association members a preview at a meeting in Geneva today.

After a cabinet meeting in London yesterday, Home Secretary R. A. Butler told the House of Commons the government had settled its policy toward the Common Market and would canvass conservative members for support.

It was generally understood Macmillan's government, despite opposition at home and from other commonwealth governments, is ready to link up with the Common Market if France permits certain concessions to commonwealth trade.

The association is composed of Britain, Norway, Sweden, Denmark, Switzerland, Austria and Portugal, and Finland is an associate member. The Common Market is made up of France, West Germany, Italy, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg and already has a long start toward completely free trade among the six nations and a common tariff barrier against the rest of the world.

Why Alf Landon Drives '51 Car

TOPEKA, Kan. (AP)—Alf Landon, the 1936 Republican presidential nominee, has confided why he still drives a 1951 model car.

"I have promised myself if it ever costs $75 in a year to fix it up, I'll trade it in," Landon said.

Reservist Has Chance In 10 Of Call Up

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A military reservist theoretically has about one chance in 10 of being called to active duty under the preparedness plan.

Under the sweeping mobilization authority, no more than 250,000 reservists of all services are likely to be called.

They will be drawn from a ready reserve force of more than 2.4 million men who have had active military training and now participate in the reserves.

Plans explained to Congress indicate that the Army and Navy reservist's chance is far less than one in 10, and no Marines will be called.

While pitching for the New York Yankees, Charley Ruffing won 20 or more games in four straight seasons—1936 through 1939.

College Board Told Campus Dorms Needed

Diamond said suitable rooms which students can afford to rent are necessary if the college is to serve the outlying areas of Marin County and other parts of the state.

He said about 60 students per year from Marin and other parts of the state must find housing.

In a report to the board, Diamond said the advantages of dormitories were that they insure proper housing, provide supervision of students, serve outlying areas of the county, provide proper housing for foreign students and provide a nucleus for the college activity program.

He listed as the disadvantages the initial cost of the dormitories, the complications of operation, supervision and maintenance and the increased responsibility in matter of student behavior.

The board held up action on the matter for further study.

The trustees unanimously authorized purchase of additional gas shut-off valves outside the chemistry building and business education building, at cost estimated at $400.

Board President Kent O. Seymour appointed trustees Elizabeth M. Deedy, George G. Washburn and Rupert E. Kempf as a committee to meet with Norman Bird, college business manager, to study bids for supplies and equipment for many of the college departments.

The board approved President Stephen E. Epler's recommendation of instructor's pay and student fees for extended day and adult education classes. Instructor pay will be $5.50 per hour for non-credit courses and $6.50 per hour for credit courses. The student fees will be $4 per semester for the first non-credit course and $1 for each additional course.

Prescription Forging Trial Set

Ethel Ruth DeLancey, 59, of 1 Culloden Park, San Rafael, is scheduled to appear in Marin Superior Court on Aug. 7 to face a charge of forging a prescription.

Dist. Atty. Roger P. Garety said Mrs. DeLancey had apparently been prescribed demerol (pain killer) in the past, and when she ran out, she forged a prescription to get more.

She surrendered voluntarily to the district attorney yesterday, appeared before Judge Leonard A. Thomas in Marin Municipal Court, and waived a preliminary hearing. The judge bound her over to the higher court. She is free on $1,050 bail.

England's Austerity Plan Approved By Parliament

LONDON (AP) — The British government's new austerity program cleared the hurdle of parliamentary approval last night as expected but still faced the rising anger of wage earners today.

Prime Minister Harold Macmillan won an overwhelming vote of confidence in the House of Commons while groups of schoolteachers, miners, engineers and telephone operators made plans to press for pay raises despite government pleas to hold the line.

Macmillan told Commons that the tax increases and other curbs on spending — felt in nearly every household in the land—are vital for the nation's prosperity.

Opposition Laborites shouted for his resignation. But the Conservative majority held together, beat down a censure motion and voted 346-236 to approve the government program.

Three hundred teachers at nine schools staged one-day strikes to protest government cancellation of a promised pay boost.

Marin City 1st To Get New U.S. Aid

Marin City will be the first locality in the United States to use newly authorized federal financing for home purchase and rental by middle income families, it was reported today.

Rep. Clem Miller (D-Corte Madera) notified Bert Klahn, executive director of the Marin Redevelopment Agency, that arrangements have been completed for FHA insurance on relocation housing under a new Section 221 of the Housing Act giving lower interest rates and longer financing.

This, he said, makes Marin City first in the country to use the "very favorable rental and home purchase schedules of the new act."

Klahn said he felt pride that Marin City has been chosen as first and declared:

"The net result could affect the lives and futures of many middle income families living in sub-standard homes at present.

"Lower rentals and purchase prices will be provided for single families, and make it possible for more families to qualify."

Details of the program are to be worked out by the San Francisco FHA office, said Miller. The project will be discussed with FHA officials there on Aug. 4 by A. Franklin Daniels, FHA assistant commissioner for multi-family operations.

The maximum loan for relocation sales housing under the program is to be $15,000. Installment payments at Marin City can be spread over a 40-year term, said Miller, thus reducing monthly payments below those in any other FHA program.

Klahn said that while this affects the home buyer direct, renters will likewise be given a better deal because rental housing will similarly be based on 40-year financing with special 3⅛ to 3½ per cent interest rate and waiver of mortgage insurance premium payments for the benefit of tenants.

LETTER SENT OUT

School Board Defends Action On Sunny Hills

The San Anselmo School District board defends its decision to acquire Sunny Hills Presbyterian Orphanage land for a new school in a two-page letter which was sent this week to more than 100 persons who wrote the board about the site proposal.

The letter setting forth the board's position has been sent also to all members of the San Anselmo City Council and to the chairman of the city planning commission, said Mrs. Mary Hedin, board president.

Greatest number of letters objecting to condemnation of Sunny Hills land for a school site came, not from San Anselmo, but from Belvedere, said Mrs. Hedin.

"The proposed residential areas to be developed on what is now unoccupied Sunny Hills property will add 200 or more pupils to the San Anselmo Schools," the school board's letter reads. "Growth from the eastern section continues to increase. Many new apartments in downtown San Anselmo also add to our pupil load . . ."

It was learned from Mrs. Catherine Wolcott, secretary of the San Anselmo Planning Commission, that a total of 30 apartment buildings have been erected in San Anselmo in the last six years.

"Right now, even without additional residential areas," the letter says, "there is pressing need for another school site. There are presently enrolled in kindergarten three times the number of students in the eighth grade. The population boom continues. . . ."

(The average daily attendance in the San Anselmo School District has gained 262 during the last six years. This represents about 43 pupils per year, or a little over one class room per year. In 1955 the average daily attendance was 1,744 as compared to 2,006 today.)

"All schools in the nearby areas are now crowded beyond capacity. Because of state minimal standards, none of the present school sites can accommodate additions on existing grounds. Therefore, another school site must be found," says the letter.

"During the many years Sunny Hills has existed, San Anselmo, and San Anselmo alone, has paid for the schooling of anywhere from 25 to 60 Sunny Hills children each year. These children come from many areas outside of Marin County. Almost none come from San Anselmo. There is no tax revenue from Sunny Hills to help support them. . . .

"There is no real evidence that the purchase of the proposed site will 'force Sunny Hills out of business.' On the contrary we believe it is possible and desirable for Sunny Hills and the school district to go on working together as has been tradition in the past," the letter reads.

Kent School Meeting

The regular meeting of the Kentfield School board, scheduled for Aug. 14 at the Wolfe Grade School, has been moved ahead to 7:45 p.m. Aug. 7, so that it can be combined with a budget-hearing.

Sheriff Loses Another Aide —'Better Pay'

George H. Tsegeletos, deputy sheriff and captain in charge of the Sheriff's Underwater Rescue Unit, will leave the job next month for a better paying position with a sporting goods firm.

Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos announced today he accepts Tsegeletos' resignation with deep regret. The deputy has been with the sheriff for about two years. Tsegeletos indicated he will resign as of Aug. 10.

The sheriff took the occasion to comment on the number of experienced men he is losing to other departments and to private business. "I really don't know how a man with a wife and two children can support his family with a monthly take-home pay of $358," said Mountanos.

"We've lost men to federal narcotics, highway patrol, and other departments," the sheriff pointed out. "Among deputies that do remain, the wives of some are working to help support the family. Where wives are unable to work, the husband is forced to take part-time jobs in addition to the deputy sheriff's job."

The Republic of Liberia acknowledges English as the official governmental language and recognizes the U.S. dollar as legal currency.

Teen-Agers Have Lark —And Land In Jail

A lark that started Monday for two teen-agers in Vallejo, wound up with them and two others in custody of Larkspur police yesterday.

A 14-year-old boy and 15-year-old girl ran away from their homes in Vallejo Monday. They took a bus to San Francisco. There they spent Monday and Tuesday nights wandering in the streets and bus depot.

Having seen the sights of the big city, the pair crossed to Marin County where they took up with two Larkspur girls of the same ages. The Larkspur girls financed them with their parents' money, said police.

They spent Wednesday night in the Greenbrae Bowling Alley drinking coffee.

When one Larkspur girl was missed from summer school yesterday morning, it was reported to Police Chief Howard Clark.

Clark remembered seeing the youngsters in the bowling alleys. Through a taxi driver in whose cab they had left the alleys, he traced them to Sausalito. They were found at Caruso's Bait and Tackle Shop in Marinship. They were planning a big boat trip on the bay.

Returned to Larkspur, the four admitted everything.

Vallejo police, who had sent out a missing persons bulletin on Monday on the boy and girl, were notified. They returned the two to Vallejo yesterday afternoon.

The parents who unknowingly furnished the money for the trip will not press any charges, Chief Clark said.

3 Teen-Agers Hurt, Stolen Auto Crashes

Three San Francisco teen-age boys in a stolen car crashed and were injured on North San Pedro Road, San Rafael, yesterday afternoon to end an 85-mile-an-hour chase by the California Highway Patrol.

They had been joy-riding in the San Rafael area for four days, said the highway patrol. Yesterday they returned to Marin County, where the car was stolen last Monday.

The 14-year-old driver took the car, property of Andrew Post of 123 Spencer Avenue, Sausalito, from the parking lot of the Spinnaker Restaurant in Sausalito, CHP officers said. He took it home and during the week he and his two companions, aged 14 and 16, joyrode around the San Francisco vicinity.

When the stolen car crossed the Golden Gate Bridge yesterday, about 4 p.m., the San Rafael office of the highway patrol was notified.

Sgt. Kenneth Armbruster stopped the car on North San Pedro Road, and said he wanted to check registrations. The young driver promptly took off. In the chase that followed he was clocked by Armbruster at speeds as high as 85 miles an hour.

On a sharp curve the car went into a skid and struck the embankment, went across a ditch and finally crashed through a fence.

The oldest boy was thrown out and was believed to have suffered a broken leg but San Rafael General Hospital pronounced it only an ankle injury. The other passenger was knocked unconscious and suffered bruises of back and forearm. The driver's right thigh and elbow were hurt.

Alto Fire Chief Carl O. Heynen announced today his department requires a new full-time fireman.

Full-time Alto fireman Frank Kinsler, 23, was killed in the San Raafel tunnel fire Friday night.

Meeting Postponed

When a quorum failed to show up for last night's meeting of the Larkspur-Corte Madera joint recreation commission, the meeting was postponed until 8 p.m. next Thursday at the Larkspur-Corte Madera School.

Wins $1,000 Prize

Santa Fe Says To Move Route Is 'Suicide'

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Gerald E. Duffy, a Santa Fe Railway vice president, declared today that his railroad would commit "financial suicide" if it diverted traffic from the Utah Gateway Route to the Arizona Gateway.

Southern Pacific Railroad has charged in hearings before the Interstate Commerce Commission that if Santa Fe obtained control of Western Pacific Railroad, it would prefer to move Northern California freight through the Arizona Gateway on its own lines all the way to Chicago.

The two routes virtually are the same distance, but Santa Fe would have to share a portion of the revenue on the Utah Gateway traffic with other railroads.

The Southern Pacific also is seeking permission of the ICC to obtain stock control of the Western Pacific.

If the Santa Fe favored the Arizona Gateway, Duffy said a number of railroads east of Salt Lake City, Utah, would take reprisals by not sharing traffic with the Santa Fe.

"They would say that you're playing a little dirty here," Duffy said.

Duffy also noted that future industrial developments along the Western Pacific lines will produce natural traffic for the Utah Gateway.

While denying that Santa Fe would allow the Utah Gateway line of Western Pacific to wither, he asserted that if the Southern Pacific wins, it will allow the Bieber route "to dry out."

The Bieber Route is presently used by traffic moving from Southern California via the Santa Fe then on Western Pacific and to the Pacific Northwest on the Great Northern Railroad.

This route competes with a Southern Pacific line. Duffy said that it would simply be common sense for Southern Pacific not to operate Western Pacific's key portion of the Bieber Route in competition with Southern Pacific.

Duffy said, "The Western Pacific was conceived, born and reared to be competition with the Southern Pacific."

Santa Fe began its rebuttal to Southern Pacific's charges yesterday when Leo C. Hudson, San Francisco freight manager for Santa Fe said the S.P. would be in a position to force customers to use their line exclusively for shipping from one point to another — regardless of extra distance or cost —if S.P. is granted control of Western Pacific.

NOMINEE CONFIRMED — The nomination of Spottswood W. Robinson III to a post on the Civil Rights Commission was confirmed yesterday by a vote of the U.S. Senate. Robinson, a Negro, is dean of Howard University law school in Washington. (AP Wirephoto)

Councilman, Wife Hurt In Argument

A domestic battle between San Rafael City Councilman Fred E. Jensen and Mrs. Juliet Bobo Jensen sent her to the hospital and left him with a torn shirt and scratches yesterday afternoon, police reported today.

Mrs. Jensen, 34, of 246 Center Street, was treated for a bruised leg and cuts near her left eye at San Rafael General Hospital. Police said Councilman Jensen had a torn shirt and abrasions about the body and face.

When Sgt. Louis Foster went to the Jensen home about 4:40 p.m. in response to an anonymous telephone call, he found Mrs. Jensen bleeding from the left eyelid.

Jensen told the sergeant he had gone downtown for a haircut, and when he returned, an argument started.

According to police, Jensen said he struck back to defend himself. Mrs. Jensen asked for transportation to the hospital but declined to comment on the argument, Sergeant Foster reported. Neither one wanted to sign a complaint.

in a position, until after the September elections there, to move really decisively in either the military or diplomatic field. Chancellor Konrad Adenauer is not expected to agree to any great degree of flexibility in the Allied diplomatic approach until he has been reaffirmed solidly in his position.

2. French President Charles de Gaulle's new troubles in Tunisia, combined with continuing uncertainty in Algeria, have cast some doubt on how much more French strength in Europe can be counted on for the proposed stiffening of the Allied military posture.

3. Britain's new austerity program, with her demands that West Germany pay a greater share of the cost of British troops stationed on the Rhine, has cast another element of uncertainty into the picture.

4. U.S. officials believe Khrushchev may not really be convinced of Kennedy's stern intentions until the proposed military increases actually begin going into effect.

"The rush that started this week really picked up speed when the Independent-Journal gave us publicity yesterday," she said today. "I had callers late yesterday who said they had read about us in the paper, and more were coming this morning. The more the better. We want to serve."

Many have expressed surprise at learning Marin County has any civil defense set-up or plans, said Mrs. Smith, producing an imposing book compiled last year as the "Civil Defense Operations Plan" and issued by the supervisors.

This goes into a variety of matters such as tasks, supply and transportation, communications and control centers and a map of evacuation routes, but is already beginning to be out of date on a number of matters including the chain of command which now substitutes Mountanos for Administrator Alan Bruce.

Mrs. Smith said early revisions, including many of major importance, will be arranged. The county has an integrated organization including all cities but Larkspur and Sausalito which preferred to be units by themselves.

12 Events Scheduled For Novato Riding Day

Fairfax Man Jailed For Wife Beating

A Fairfax service station attendant was jailed today in $1,575 bail on a charge of beating his estranged wife.

Robert Lewis Townsend, 31, was arrested by Fairfax police shortly after 8 a.m. at his home at 1750 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, several hours after his estranged wife, Mary 27, was treated at San Rafael General Hospital for injuries to her abdomen, ear and arm.

Fairfax Police Chief Clifton Cordes said the Townsends are separated and their three young children have been placed in foster homes by the county. Mrs. Townsend has been residing at the Lincoln Hotel in San Rafael. Shortly after midnight, she went to the Fairfax home and an argument with her husband ensued.

Mrs. Townsend called police, and Officer James Goodwin took her to the hospital. She returned to the police station at 8 a.m. to swear a complaint against Townsend, and his arrest followed.

COLLEGE

with 112,616 square feet used for building area. The property across College Avenue would be for an auditorium, gymnasium, baseball field, football field and track and tennis courts.

The cost for this plan would be approximately $4,397,200, with another $4,785,000 needed for the purchase of an additional site sometime in the future.

Ted Stolte of the architect firm said 12 classrooms for the science department could be added on the present campus. Also Harlan Hall cculd be converted to four large classrooms and two smaller classrooms. The chemistry building could be converted to four upper classrooms and one lower for general subjects.

Also on the plans are facilities for dormitories, but this was not included in the cost, Stolte said.

If the campus were expanded, a foot bridge would be constructed over College Avenue connecting the campus proper to the athletic area and auditorium, said Stolte.

Trustee Rupert E. Kempf voiced disapproval when the board was told that parking facilities would take up 17.5 acres of the total campus, with 5.2 acres to be used for classroom space.

"It sounds like we are having a campus built on a parking lot," declared Kempf.

Trustees indicated they would like to start charging for student parking and said the matter warranted further study.

Cost for building a new college and abandoning the present one would be $11,797,500, the architects estimated, less $3,031,500 as the appraised value of the existing campus—if it could be sold for that much.

Dr. Epler said the architect's plans would be on display during the day for interested persons. The display would be set up under the tower of Harlan Hall on the college campus.

Fairfax Planners Slate Hearing

The Fairfax Planning Commission last night set Aug. 10 as the date of a public hearing on rezoning of three acres of land on Piper Lane adjoining the Oak Manor School.

A petition signed by more than 20 residents of Piper Lane requested the planners to zone the property single residential. It is now zoned multiple residential.

Residents are objecting to a proposal by L. B. Fleischman of San Francisco to build apartments on the property. The question of rezoning was referred to the planners by the city council at its June 10 meeting.

Security Unit Dumps 26 Deviates

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The super-secret National Security Agency has fired 26 employees found to be sexual deviates since two of its code clerks defected to Russia last summer, Rep. Francis E. Walter said today.

Walter, chairman of the House Committee on Un-American Activities, made the statement after the committee took closed-door testimony from two top NSA officials.

Walter investigated the defection of Bernon F. Mitchell, formerly of San Rafael, and William H. Martin last year and charged afterward that the agency was a "nest of sexual deviates."

He called Personnel Director Maurice H. Klein and Security Chief S. Wesley Reynolds before the committee for a year-end report on security measures taken since the defection last July.

Klein told the committee that 26 persons have been dismissed from the agency as a result of the committee's investigation and a shakeup of hiring methods instituted in its wake, Walter said.

Burglars Get $250 From Gas Station

Safe burglars broke into an Alto service station sometime last night and stole about $250 in cash, sheriff's deputies reported today.

The break-in was discovered this morning by attendant Norman Lester Halloway, at the Wilshire Station at 600 Redwood Highway, Alto. He called the sheriff just before 7 a.m.

Officers said the thief or thieves apparently knew where the key for the safe was kept. The safe had been opened with a key.

Transit District On Bridge Plan

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Directors of the Bay Area Rapid Transit District agreed yesterday to study a proposal that they take over the San Francisco-Oakland, the Richmond-San Rafael, San Mateo and Dumbarton bridges.

Directors said they would schedule a public hearing on the proposal Sept. 13 or 14. Contra Costa County originally made the suggestion that the district seek to gain control of the bridges through state legislation.

NEW YORK GETTING NEW HOTEL

Finishing touches are being put on the first new hotel to be built in New York in 30 years—the Summit. It aims to add some Latin-American color and European-type glamor to Manhattan when it opens. Each employee must speak two languages and each of the 800 rooms has two telephones. (UPI Telephoto)

Hodges Says U.S. Economy Has Recovered

SAN FRANCISCO — Secretary of Commerce Luther H. Hodges said today the nation's economy has recovered from the recent recession "as well or better than in any of the previous postwar recovery periods."

Hodges told a luncheon meeting of the Commonwealth Club of California in a speech prepared for delivery that the gross national product, which dropped to an annual rate of 501 billion dollars in the first three months of 1961, jumped to 515 billion dollars in the second quarter.

Personal income was 10 billion dollars higher than the pre-recession peak last October, business inventories were improving, and consumer buying was still moving upward, according to the secretary.

"Even our international balance of payments figures promise to be much better for the second quarter," he said.

Last-Ditch Try For Cuban Tractors Swap

MIAMI (UPI) — The Cuban prisoners commission which came here June 25 in an attempt to resurrect the tractors-for-prisoners deal will return to Cuba and their cells Sunday.

The 10-man commission has set up a "prisoners family committee" here which will attempt to collect the estimated 20 million dollars needed to buy the 500 bulldozers demanded by Cuban Premier Fidel Castro in exchange for the 1,197 captured invaders.

Accompanying the prisoners back to Havana will be three members of the family committee. They will confer with Castro and advise him on progress of their fund subscriptions. A spokesman for the family committee said a continuation of the tractor deal depends upon the conversation with the Cuban premier.

Making the trip will be Alvaro Sanchez, Manuel Arcas, and Ernesto Freyre. All are prominent former businessmen in Cuba and all had relatives in the ill-fated invasion.

Ten prominent Cuban exiles here and William Pauley, a Miami entrepeneur who used to do business in Cuba, have subscribed a total of $113,000 for the prisoners exchange fund.

The dissolved U.S. citizens "Tractors for Freedom" committee, headed by Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, returned unopened contribution envelopes it had received from about 70,000 senders. The prisoners commission made an unsuccessful bid for the envelopes.

A spokesman for the American committee, whose directors included union leader Walter Reuther and Dr. Milton Eisenhower, said the committee decided to dissolve when Castro referred to the tractor exchange as "indemnity" for damages done in the invasion.

Commemorative Stamp Requested For Gate Bridge

The Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District board has requested that a commemorative postage stamp be issued for the 25th anniversary of the bridge opening next year, and has been assured the request will be considered by the postmaster general's stamp advisory committee.

The famed span was opened on May 27, 1937.

Roger Kent of Kentfield, a member of the stamp advisory committee, told the bridge board, "I am heartily in favor of the idea and will do my utmost to have a commemorative stamp issued."

Norman Todhunter, New York artist who once resided in Mill Valley, also is a member of the stamp advisory committee.

Bolinas Harbor Budget

The Bolinas Harbor District last night gave final approval to the fiscal 1961-62 budget of $7,000. The meeting was held in Stinson Beach. The next meeting, Aug. 24, will be in Bolinas, Gene W. McDaniel, president, said.

Driver Falls Asleep, Injured In Smashup

A Petaluma service station attendant was treated at Novato Hospital for deep forehead cuts after going to sleep and driving his car into an Atherton Avenue embankment early today.

Gordon Max Thompson, 27, told the California Highway Patrol he had been short on slumber before going to see a Novato friend. Southbound on Atherton at 2:30 a.m. he drove 50 feet along the road shoulder and into the bank.

Nets Held To Task For Violence On TV

WASHINGTON (AP) — A television show producer said today the three major networks are responsible for what he considers excessive crime and violence on TV.

He testified the networks write letters asking for less violence, but make telephone calls urging "more sex, more violence, and blacker villains so we can kill them off in one big climax."

The witness, Maurice J. Unger, Hollywood manager for Ziv-United Artists, Inc., said there would be less crime and violence on shows seen by children if Congress "reduced the excessive power" of the three men who head the big networks.

He said the three have a stranglehold on programs and have "more power than the Constitution gives Congress or the Supreme Court."

He added that if the Senate Juvenile Delinquency subcommittee, headed by Sen. Thomas J. Dodd (D-Conn.) wants to improve shows, "it can convince the seven men on the Federal Communications Commission to curb the powers of the three men in the networks."

Unger and A. Frank Reel, vice president in charge of business affairs for Ziv-United Artists, testified at an inquiry into the effect of some TV programs on youngsters.

TV Taught Son To Kill, Father Says

GUNTERSVILLE, Ala. (AP)—A grieving man says his 11-year-old son learned to kill from television.

"I can't think of any other answer," said Junior Franks, the father.

William Earl Franks told his father at the Marshall County jail how he waylaid a rural mail carrier and shot him to death with a rifle.

Joseph R. Thompson, 37, the postman, was killed Wednesday about 300 yards from the house near the Grant community where William Earl lived with his divorced father and grandmother.

"I think the main cause is TV," the father said. "He liked the war pictures and Westerns."

Franks described his son as normal and said he made better than average grades at the grammar school at Grant.

Franks said he gave his son the rifle for Christmas two years ago.

Sheriff Warren Jones said the boy gave a statement yesterday describing how he raised the flag on a rural mail box, causing the postman to stop, and then shot him to death.

The sheriff said he used the mail in the car to set the vehicle on fire.

Firemen Battle Stubborn Blaze In Mill Valley

Three hundred feet of handline hose had to be laid in a redwood forest area above Fairway Drive, Mill Valley, by firemen battling a stubborn, smouldering fire in a heavy layer of fallen leaves started by a boys' bonfire yesterday.

Fire Chief Leslie Armager said 1,300 gallons of water—three and a half tank truck loads—was used to put out the fire. It was reported at 9:18 a.m. and mopped up at 12:10 p.m.

Firemen learned the fire was started by the same boys who built a bonfire elsewhere in the Mill Valley area earlier this week. The boys were reprimanded and their parents notified.

Wife Beater Gets Fine, Probation

Del Mar Thoman, 33, of 555 Cedarberry Drive, Marinwood, who beat his wife last May, drew $105 fine and two years probation yesterday for battery.

Judge Leonard A. Thomas of Marin Municipal Court also recommended that Thoman seek some kind of marriage counseling.

Last May 25, Mrs. Carol Jenine Thoman, 30, told sheriff's deputies her husband had beat her and took off in the family car. She said he had become angry with her when he overheard a telephone conversation between her and another man.

American Motors Offers Employees Profit Plan

DETROIT (AP) — American Motors Corp. today offered the United Auto Workers Union a profit-sharing wage plan and a seven-cent hourly wage increase annually over the next three years.

In exchange, American Motors asked the UAW to give up cost-of-living allowance and annual improvement factor clauses in their current contract expiring Sept. 7.

AMC's was the first settlement offer handed the UAW in negotiations started a month ago with the auto industry. In 1958 profit-sharing was the union's principal goal but it failed to get it.

AMC would set aside the first 10 per cent of profits before taxes for its stockholders, then set aside the next 10 per cent to what it termed a progressive sharing fund for hourly rated union employees.

American Motors offered customers a rebate program last winter, the refund depending upon total sales. In only one month did sales sufficiently outstrip those of the similar month a year earlier and consequently only one $25 rebate savings bond was paid to Rambler buyers of December.

Discrimination Laws Get Tough

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — It's illegal to discriminate against anyone in employment for just about any reason.

Color has been ruled out, for instance. A Negro woman was found by the state Fair Employment Practices Commission to have been discriminated against. The FEPC staff opinion was that, judged by Negro standards, her appearance was as good as a number of white women hired.

But weight has not been ruled out. The FEPC, in another case involving a trainee for a utility company, said the person could be excluded until she lost six pounds, and thus improved her appearance.

New Plan Told For Mental Retarded

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A new plan to put 100 mentally retarded patients in private hospitals instead of state institutions was announced recently by the State Department of Mental Hygiene.

The plan will reduce the number of mentally ill persons now awaiting treatment in the state hospitals by providing a $2,500 per patient a year subsidy to participating hospitals.

The partnership plan was approved by the 1961 Legislature in the current state budget.

120-Car Parking Lot To Open At Prison

A 120-car parking lot to accommodate San Quentin Prison visitors will be completed in about a week, Associate Warden Dale B. Frady said today.

The lot, located below the gate house on the east side of the prison, will eliminate parking on the narrow entrance road from Highway 17. Visitors will be cleared at the gate house after they have parked their cars. Access to the gate house from the enclosed lot will be by a pedestrian ramp.

MARIN COUNTY FILM FARE

Powerful 'By Love Possessed' Opening Run On Rafael Screen

By LES DARD

RAFAEL THEATRE

"By Love Possessed," the story of a man's search for himself as his family life falls apart, opens Sunday.

Based on James Gould Cozzens' Pulitzer-prize novel, the powerful film stars Lana Turner, Efrem Zimbalist Jr., Thomas Mitchell and Barbara Bel Geddes.

The plot centers on wealthy lawyer Zimbalist. When we first meet him, his life is sweet and satisfying; he's a man to be envied. Overnight, everything changes. His wife expresses dissatisfaction; his son rebels; he discovers his father-in-law is embezzling his money. In despair, Zimbalist turns to Lana Turner, wife of his partner, Robards.

The film is one most adults will want to see, particularly those who were enthralled by the novel.

On the same bill is the riotous comedy hit, "The Last Time I Saw Archie," starring Jack Webb and Robert Mitchum.

NOVATO THEATRE

"Return to Peyton Place" is a sequel to the highly successful "Peyton Place." In CinemaScope and color, it opens Sunday.

Grace Metalious, author of both books, has written, in this story, of the impact of her first book on the small New Hampshire community she dissected so thoroughly.

Carol Lynley plays Allison, a young beauty who writes a novel about her home town. Jeff Chandler is cast as her New York publisher. Eleanor Parker replaces Lana Turner as Allison's mother, and Mary Astor portrays the hateful leader of the town book burners, who are more than somewhat upset by Allison's revelations.

SEQUOIA THEATRE

A fine Walt Disney treat for the whole family is opening Sunday: "The Parent Trap."

This one is pure delight every child should see and—if they're like mine—will want to see a second time.

It stars the delightful gamin we met in "Pollyanna," Hayley Mills, except that in this film she's doubly charming — because she plays twins.

It's the improbable story of two teen-agers who meet at summer camp and discover they are the twin daughters of divorced parents, Mother in Boston, Daddy in Carmel. This just won't do, the twins decide, and they swap places to bring about a reconciliation.

Maureen O'Hara plays Mother, and the usually serious Brian Keith does a dandy job as Daddy.

The kids declare "Parent Trap" is the greatest — and many a parent has been trapped, too.

TAMALPAIS THEATRE

Danny Kaye is back with some of his funniest antics in "On The Double," which comes to the Hub screen Sunday.

Danny jaunts through no less than 19 characters.

He plays an American GI in England whose talent for imitations lands him a sitting-duck role impersonating a British general marked for extinction by a Nazi spy ring. The real general is hidden.

The story, based on a World War II incident, gives full range to Danny's great comic talent.

The old general's unhappy wife turns out to be a never-lovelier Dana Wynter, and his girl friend Diana Dors, which develops into fun, too.

It's a wild carnival of Danny Kaye songs, dances, foolish characters and general nonsense. Like the rocket men say, it's A.O.Kaye.

FAIRFAX THEATRE

A double bill goes on-screen tonight: "Pillow Talk" and "The Great Imposter."

"Pillow Talk," you remember, is that fine comedy starring Doris Day and Rock Hudson.

It's a romantic package all tied up with a telephone wire — Doris and Rock sharing a party line. They get comedy assists from Tony Randall and Thelma Ritter.

"The Great Imposter" tells the story of Fred Demara Jr., who achieved such great notoriety by not being himself.

The professional name-stealer takes us from monasteries into the Army, the Marines, back into a monastery and finally into the role of a Canadian navy surgeon in Korea.

MOTOR MOVIES, TIBURON PLAYHOUSE

Re-released this Civil War Centennial year, the great "Gone With The Wind" opens on both screens Sunday.

More than 20 years have passed since this romantic classic hit the screen. For the benefit of those who've never seen it, the film stars Vivien Leigh as the head-strong, ruthless Scarlett O'Hara, and Clark Gable as Rhett Butler, a Civil War blockade runner who falls in love with her.

The cast also includes Leslie Howard, Olivia de Havilland, Hattie McDaniel, Butterfly McQueen, Thomas Mitchell, and Victor Jory.

The two decades since this film's production have brought important changes to the art of making films, but the qualities that made it have not been weakened by time or technology.

LARK THEATRE

Ingmar Bergman's outstanding dramatic success, "The Virgin Spring," is in its fourth week.

The film, both ghastly and lovely, concerns two young girls and an ancient Swedish farm family. One day the girls ride out to visit a distant church. One abandons the other who falls in with three herdsmen.

A moving and beautiful miracle ends the story, based on a medieval ballad.

It has unpleasant moments, but film is most rewarding.

And, of course, for adults only.

LAUGH PACKED—The laughs are packed in as happily as the stars in "The Last Time I Saw Archie," the riotous comedy opening Sunday at the Rafael Theater. That's Jack Webb and Robert Mitchum in the front seat with a bunch of lugs and lovelies on the wackiest movie ride you ever took. "Archie" shares the bill with "By Love Possessed."

DINING OUT AND INNS

By HARRY CRAFT

A Lot's Been Going On At The Old Casa Madrona Hotel In Sausalito

By no means new, but certainly winning a fine reputation for itself in good cooking is Le Vivoir, restaurant Francais in the Casa Madrona Hotel, 156 Bulkley Avenue, Sausalito.

This spot was taken over two years ago from Maurice Guridi by the Robert Deschamps family who arrived in Marin from Bordeaux, France, via Quebec where they were in the restaurant business for eight years. They've done extensive remodeling at the Casa Madrona and have been building a nice dinner trade in straight French cuisine. Mrs. Deschamps prepares the food herself — authentically and tastily.

Le Vivoir is open from 6 to 10 p.m. through the week and from 5 to 10 p.m. on Sundays, closed Tuesdays. Regular dinners run from $3 to $4.30. There is also a la carte service and a good wine list.

Quite a view here, with tables out on the terrace—which are not always usable if the wind is high—but it's still viewsome and pleasant inside.

Weekends are particularly busy. In spite of its fair capacity there's likely to be quite a wait. We'd recommend going during the middle of the week.

IF YOU HAVE passed by San Rafael Joe's on Fourth Street this week, you've noticed the remodeling going on; possibly you got a peek or two inside.

A few more days and it will be fully completed. Hector and Guido have set an opening date for Thursday, Aug. 3.

IF YOU'VE LOOKED at the July issue of the PG&E Progress that accompanies your gas and electric bill, you've probably noticed that Gordon Jones at Rubini's was honored for his "Lobster Steak Rubini" recipe. The utility company's home economist tried it out and found it worth publishing.

The spread has brought the Fairfax restaurant a flurry of customers who probably aren't quite sure of their cooking ability and want to make a spot test.

One made a special trip from Lodi just so she would know how the "eschalots" were used in the recipe.

She thought the word was French for snails.

NOW HANDLING Gourmet Joe's and the snack bar at the Country Club Bowl in San Rafael is Tom Cuccaro who insists on being called Tomaso.

He's specializing in a variety of $2 Sunday dinners but you'll find him on the job daily and full of ideas for improvement.

THEY THOUGHT it was just the usual heavy splurge of business that goes with a new opening, but it seems to have become more than that—

Sabella's hasn't had a letdown in customer attendance since it moved to its new restaurant a month ago and it's beginning to look permanent.

Good thing they made the place as large as they did.

ABOUT $70,000 is being spent in redecorating the old Yacht Dock premises in Sausalito by the Kingston Trio. Manager Louis Ganapolar assures us that it will take its bow among Marin eating and night spots at the Trident on Aug. 7.

Seating is being arranged on several levels to take advantage of the view.

The Trident will specialize in lunches — "a simple menu but consisting of international dishes of all kinds," says Ganapolar. Service will be seven days a week from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. and from then on will be given over to cocktails, hot hors d'oeuvres and entertainment during the evening by the Vince Guaraldi Trio. Pierre Flobert is remaining on as chef.

Fourth And C Pharmacy To Open Tuesday

Gary L. Rifkind of Terra Linda will open the Fourth and C Pharmacy at 1246 Fourth Street, San Rafael, on Tuesday morning.

Rifkind, a registered pharmacist previously employed in San Francisco, took possession of the premises June 1. In the last two months they have been completely remodeled.

Rifkind said the store will maintain a prescription department, self service in drug sundries and a full line of cosmetics. The cosmetic department will be handled by Grethe Fisher of Novato.

Rifkind's father, Edward Rifkind, an experienced pharmacist who is moving from Daly City to Terra Linda, will assist him in the store's operation.

The store will be open Mondays through Saturdays from 8:30 a.m. to 6:30 p.m. Rifkind said he plans to keep it open on Friday night and possibly one other night during the week and until 9 o'clock.

He will feature many cosmetic and sundry specials on opening day.

A former Los Angeles resident, Rifkind has resided in Marin County a little more than a year. His wife is the former Joyce Baker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Baker of Sleepy Hollow.

Brown Concerned Over Freeway Plan

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Gov. Edmund G. Brown has expressed concern at the San Francisco Board of Supervisors' delay in approving a final freeway plan.

"Time is running out," he said in a copy of a letter sent to board president Charles Ertola. "I am concerned about the possibility of an ultimate stalemate."

Brown said he was particularly worried in relation to the interstate program, which has been put back on schedule, and the delay in action by the board of supervisors.

GOOD FOOD IS MY LINE
By COL. MAX HOROWITZ
The popularity of pizza and cheese dips has revived Americans' interest in cheese, so long identified with European eating habits. We are rediscovering cheeses that were familiar to our grandparents. Besides the old favorites like cheddar (American) and Swiss cheese, your supermarket dairy department also displays exotic cheeses from all over the world. There is the caraway-laden Kuminost, a Scandinavian favorite suitable for snacks. There is the pizza-makers Mozzarella, prized for its mild flavor and the ease and smoothness in melting. Of course, there is the French Roquefort used in cooking and salads. The much abused German Limburger cheese can't be beaten with crackers.
The above is a household hint for the housewife—However for the best Prime Rib Dinner in the Bay Area—You can come to the Colonel's Ranch Wagon where you have entertainment every night of the week.

WORK STARTS ON NEW SUPERMARKET

Excavation was under way today for a new Jolly Stores 18,000-square foot supermarket at 2040 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard in Fairfax, on flat land created by quarrying away the point of a hill by Charles R. Varney, Inc. Equipment operators in photo are Jimmy Holton and Jack Sutter of San Rafael. Contractor is Ronald Antonioli of San Rafael. A building permit for $117,000 has been issued, and complete cost including equipment is estimated at $250,000. Antonioli will also build a 4,000-square foot bank building adjacent to the market. Ex-Convict In Bizarre Burglary Slain In Blast

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—An ex-convict who testified against three men convicted of a bizarre burglary was killed in gangland style yesterday by an explosion which ripped through his auto when he turned on the ignition.

Police later questioned and today released two of the convicted men and a woman nightclub owner awaiting trial.

Police Capt. David Brown said Lilian Reis, 33, owner of the Celebrity Room, Ralph Staino Jr. 27, and John C. Berkery, 30, were questioned and released after accounting for all of their activities last night and Wednesday.

The three voluntarily surrendered for questioning last night about six hours after ex-convict Richard Blaney was killed outside his home on his 27th birthday when his automobile was ripped by an explosion as he turned on the ignition. Last August, Richard's brother, Vincent, 27, who had been expected to be a prosecution witness in the burglary case, was slain in gangland-style.

Brown said Mrs. Reis, divorcee who at one time danced in chorus lines, Staino, who at one time managed her nightclub, and Berkery denied any connection with the slaying of Richard Blaney.

Police last night were trying to find for questioning Robert H. Poulson, 25, a third man convicted in the burglary in Pottsville, in northeastern Pennsylvania, which authorities claim netted nearly a half million dollars in cash. John Rich, a wealthy coal operator whose home was burglarized, has maintained only $20,000 in cash and jewelry was taken.

Marin Quota Of '61 United Bay Crusade Set At $131,095

Marin's quota for the 1961 United Bay Area Crusade will be $131,095, Byron W. Leydecker, campaign chairman, announced today.

The quota was approved at the first meeting of the 1961 campaign cabinet, held yesterday at the office of Crocker-Anglo National Bank in the Montecito Shopping Center in San Rafael.

The county's quota last year was $159,329, of which $147,975 was raised. However, said Leydecker, the $131,095 would provide 8½ per cent more from "donor sources" assigned to Marin than was raised last year, because of changes in United Bay Area Crusade's campaign operation.

Leydecker also announced appointment of 13 Marin County business and professional men who will direct this year's crusade and comprise the campaign cabinet.

Heading the list are Carroll Walker and Douglas R. Horton of San Rafael, who will serve as vice chairmen under Leydecker. Each will be responsible for four of the eight campaign divisions.

Quotas for the various divisions also were approved at yesterday's meeting.

Largest quota is $63,300 for the residential and special gifts divisions combined, under Walker's chairmanship. Theodore B. Craig of San Rafael is residential division chairman, and A. Crawford Greene of Ross is honorary chairman of the special gifts division, for which a chairman has not yet been named.

Walker's other divisions are: professional, with Dr. Joseph J. Arons and attorney S. J. Hugh Allen, of San Rafael, as co-chairmen, and a quota of $15,155; education, with Dr. Marcus Davis of Sausalito and Dr. R. S. Kupfer of San Rafael as co-chairmen, and a quota of $10,400.

Horton's divisions, their chairmen and quotas are: commerce and industry, Paul R. Leahy of San Rafael, $21,000; business, Charles L. Convis of Marinwood, $12,500; commercial, Mel L. Morse of San Rafael, $6,000; county, city and district employees, Leland H. Jordan of Fairfax, $2,740.

October has been designated crusade month in the five counties comprising the United Bay Area Crusade, with the drive in residential areas scheduled to begin Oct. 17. Solicitation in the special gifts and group divisions will start in September, according to the campaign chairman.

Twenty Marin agencies benefit from United Crusade.

Loses Leg

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Daniel Hughes, 5, lost his left leg yesterday after his foot got caught in the family washing machine.

The boy was playing alone in the basement when his parents, John and Patricia, heard him scream. The father freed the boy. At Nazareth Hospital it was decided that the leg had to be removed below the knee.

Recall Contestants Should Rise Above 'False Witness'

In many respects these are bitter times in Marin.

People are mad at each other.

If you watch the "What Our Readers Say" column regularly, you know that there is a good bit of name-calling and assertive accusation.

Over-enthusiastic workers in the recall Blair movement for instance make all sorts of statements alleging that the supervisor is motivated by the lowest sort of purpose.

And some red hot Blair backers impute all manner of evil motives to recall workers.

Is this good?

We don't think so. It may make lively reading for newspaper readers, but we think the net effect is detrimental.

One of the 10 commandments recorded in the Old Testament, let us recall, is "Thou shalt not bear false witness . . . "

Scholars have pointed out that the broad meaning of this commandment includes admonition to give the other fellow the benefit of the doubt when it comes to imputing motives.

Regardless of religious convictions, thinkers through the ages have largely regarded the 10 commandments as the prescription for curing most of the world's man-made ills.

But do we not here in Marin County all-too-frequently break the false witness commandment?

Too many of us go about imputing base motives to people with whom we disagree.

There is no doubt that some high-up Blair supporters have regarded his critics as a little group of die-hard opponents, frustrated because he won election last year and dedicated to wreck the county if necessary for the purpose of doing him in.

This, of course, imputes the basest sort of motives to the recall Blair leaders. And that certainly is the farthest thing from giving them the benefit of the doubt.

Some leading Blair opponents regard him as set upon destroying local government and eliminating its services to the community in the process of over-zealously persuing "economy."

Mr. Blair may be over-zealously persuing what he regards as economy, but to accuse him of wanting to destroy county government we think is to "bear false witness."

As the recall movement progresses, we fervently hope that the leaders on both sides of the contest will rise above "false witness" and not stoop to taking the benefit of doubt instead of giving it.

A Greedy Butterfly Pioneer

Among butterflies, the Cabbage is something of a plain Jane. This white butterfly with the black wing spots is too common in Marin (as in the rest of the country) to excite collectors, and too greedily destructive of cabbages, nasturtiums and mustards to generate much enthusiasm among gardeners.

These little fellows have at least one thing in common with California's pioneer families. They are not native to America, first being spotted in Quebec a little over a hundred years ago. Presumably they were stowaways on a load of cabbage from their home in Europe.

Yet, they were a vital species. Within about 30 years they were laying eggs and their caterpillars were spoiling gardens on the Pacific Coast.

The next time you see a cabbage butterfly, remember its ancestors came West with the pioneers—giving them wormy cabbages all the way.

FINDER RETURNS $240,000

A 50-year-old maintenance man found $240,000 in a bag on a Los Angeles street while out hunting for a job. When he promptly turned it over to the FBI, he unconsciously reminded countless millions that an honest world begins with each of us.

Douglas Johnson, a jobless father of three, picked up the gray cloth bag lying in the middle of the road. It had bounced out of the back of a Brink's armored car that was transferring it from one bank to another.

The $10 and $20 bills would have been untraceable because of the failure of the bank to record them.

"I never thought about keeping it," Mr. Johnson smilingly commented after turning over the money.

Even one such example of unhesitating honesty shines out at a time when too many persons succumb to cheating, theft and many forms of graft and corruption.

It is heartening evidence that man can live up to standards of honor and integrity with which each human being has been imbued by His Creator.

"God is not unjust, that He should forget your work, and the love which you have shown in His name."

(Hebrews 6:10)

Actress Anne Bancroft Struck 2,800 Times For Art's Sake

NEW YORK (AP) — Anne Bancroft has been struck in the face more than 2,800 times in the name of art.

Film audiences gasped years ago when actress Mae Clarke played a role in which Jimmy Cagney pushed a grapefruit in her face.

A grapefruit in the face would be merely cool and refreshing to Miss Bancroft.

As Annie Sullivan, teacher of deaf, mute and blind Helen Keller in "The Miracle Worker," she was slapped hard—or hit in the face with a plastic doll—four times a performance by her undisciplined young charge whom she gradually brings to love and learning.

Anne played the stage role through 700 performances and won her second Broadway Tony award. The first was for "Two for the Seesaw."

She and Patty Duke, who plays Helen Keller as a child, are again co-starred in the screen version of "The Miracle Worker," a picture that probably won't leave a dry eye.

The other day I talked with Miss Bancroft during a luncheon break on the set. Her head was ringing.

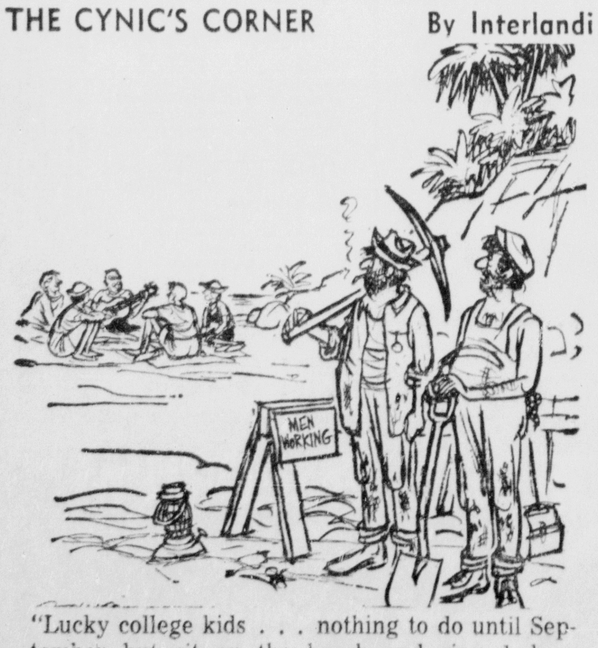

THEY HAD JUST finished shooting one of the slapping sequences, and Anne had been bopped in the face—and bopped hard to insure realism—some 15 times.

"It's all in the business," she said matter of factly, "but sometimes you hate to do it over and over again — if it isn't your fault."

ANNE, 30, whose first public performance was an impromptu dance as a child before a captive audience of eight street workers in her native Bronx, was signed early by Hollywood. She appeared in a dozen or more films, all of which now she is willing to forget.

But it was her two starring appearances on Broadway that won her fame and recognition as one of the best of the current crop of young dramatic actresses.

North-South Road Needed In Marin

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

The recent disastrous fire in the railway tunnel at Puerto Suello has again shown the folly of relying upon a one-road access between the southern and northern portions of the county. Action should be taken now to establish other roads between the Las Gallinas, Terra Linda Valley area and the San Rafael, Ross Valley area.

We have lived in Marin County since 1942 and have read of various proposals for other access roads, through this range of hills, but nothing has been done.

In 1942, there were four traffic lanes provided by U. S. 101, today there are only five traffic lanes. The population of all of Marin County has increased rapidly during the last 20 years, and a good portion of this has occurred north of San Rafael.

I agree with the plans by the State Highway Division to increase Highway 101 to six lanes or more through Puerto Suello.

I believe other roads should be planned and developed as soon as possible through this range of hills. Where the roads should be placed and how they may be financed can be resolved by cooperative action.

The Puerto Suello "bottleneck" is a major obstacle in civil defense and travel both within and through the county.

Protests Recall Against Blair

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

I should like to protest against the movement to recall Supervisor Walter J. Blair of Mill Valley. This action is ill considered and is a perversion of our elective processes.

I am in thorough disagreement with Mr. Blair's economiic and political philosophies. I believe the recent actions of the majority of the board of supervisors relative to the Civic Center and the county administrator are stupid and ill conceived. Nevertheless, they were completely predictable. Mr. Blair and his ilk made no secret of their intentions during their campaigns. The citizens of Southern Marin had a clear, unequivocal choice between a know-nothing, spend-nothing, narrow visioned candidate and an intelligent, enlightened, and progressive one. I voted for Mrs. Schultz and was deeply disappointed over the outcome. However, Mr. Blair was elected and I believe the county is getting exactly what it asked for—narrow, regressive administration.

To my knowledge Mr. Blair is fulfilling his campaign pledges. Having accepted him and his program at the polls we are morally obligated to accept him for his full term, unless dereliction or dishonesty can be proved. It would be a great tragedy, indeed, to disgrace a man by recalling him, when his only crime has been to fulfill his campaign promises.

I believe the efforts of the committee dedicated to Mr. Blair's recall would better serve the cause of democracy and justice if they were postponed and exercised at the next supervisory election. I wonder where they all were on last election day.

Majority Favor Risking War

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

. . . A recent national survey revealed that 71 per cent of Americans favored risking war over Berlin, that 15 per cent favored being firm but cautious, avoiding war if possible, and that 14 per cent would yield rather than fight over Berlin.

This 14 per cent sadly represents part of our population who have forgotten what democracy is. They have forgotten our forefathers who died to establish the United States of America. This 14 per cent represents the wishy-washy, pleasure-seeking youth who care nothing about education or the nation and who are not ashamed to admit it.

It is time to do some deep thinking will we go to war over Berlin? Are we bold enough to increase the draft quota? Will we have enough courage to fire the first shot to break a Russian blockade of Berlin? Will we appropriate the billions needed for defense and education? Will we bargain and compromise with the Russians who have broken treaties at their convenience? Will we test nuclear weapons to improve our military position? Will we pay higher taxes to help ourselves or will we criticize "socialistic control" of schools through federal aid to education? Will we act as a unified whole?

I only hope that the majority of the people of America are willing to make sacrifices for our country and our freedom. Are you? Let not historians write that in the year 1961 the United States failed to recognize the reality of the cold war.

Bernard Gimbel, drygoods tycoon, won his title as Number One Fight Fan fairly and squarely at the famous Dempsey-Tunney "long count" heavyweight embroglio in Chicago.

The victorious Tunney was protected after his victory by a phalanx of police, but somehow or other Bernie Gimbel wangled his way into the dressing room. "The next thing I knew," reports Tunney, "there was Bernie, fully clothed, including raincoat and hat, standing happily under the shower with me, talking a mile a minute about the fight."

A Yale freshman writes that he was sharing a cabin on a farm last summer with a Princeton lad who showed him a letter from home and said, "Tarnation, we've got a freak in the family. My ma writes here I won't know my sister when I get home. She's grown another foot."

County Clerk George S. Jones and grand jury member Albert Barrows criticized the supervisors and Assessor George Hall for allegedly unfair treatment of taxpayers at equalization hearings.

20 YEARS AGO

Lumber interests asked a permit to put up a sawmill in Lagunitas Canyon where they plan to cut over 6,000 acres of timber land, part of the Shafter estate.

General building contractors objected to an edict of the Marin Plasterers' Union that all outside stucco jobs must consist of three coats or the job would be considered "unfair."

1930 Election Posters Anybody? Corte Madera Clerk Finds Them

ONE MIGHT THINK that the Corte Madera town hall hasn't been thoroughly cleaned in lo, these many years. The other day, Naydeen Penny, town clerk, opened a desk drawer in the council chambers and found some election cards from 1930 and 1932 elections.

Instead of coming from a desk drawer filled with 30 years of dust, they were found in a clean desk. Later, it was learned that they are souvenirs of the volunteer firemen.

CORTE MADERA policemen are proudly displaying new shoulder patches that show an extremely good picture of the town with Mount Tamalpais in the background. Chief of Police Frank Nelson said the design for the patches was taken from a snapshot he took. The chief admitted that to get the proper perspective of the town, he had to go to San Quentin. No reflections on the people of Corte Madera of course.

WITH SUMMER SCHOOL ending, there are more bicycles on the sidewalks and streets than usual. Many of the smaller children are not sure of themselves while riding and they weave around.

It is often difficult for a pedestrian or motorist to miss all the weaving bikes as a group of youngsters travel about.

Maybe parents should tell youngsters that the generally accepted way to ride a bike is on the same side of the street as auto traffic. Bicyclists are supposed to obey traffic rules, giving signals and stopping at stop signs. Motorists are supposed to give bicycles the same right of way as another car.

Does anyone think such a system will actually work?

CORTE MADERA boasts of a small but beautiful little park in the middle of town. Called Menke Park, it is a little oasis of beauty in the midst of empty spaces of dry grass. The town street crew recently completed a walk and railing along the upper part of the park making it so people could walk and look down on the flowers below. A nice but small addition to the town.

SPEAKING OF BEAUTY, have you ever seen many things more beautiful than the red flowering eucalyptus trees now in bloom?

FAR TOO MANY fires in Marin County can be traced to children playing with matches, or juveniles setting grass fires to watch as the fire rtucks come rolling with their sirens screaming.

Can't parents teach their children the danger of fire? Shouldn't parents try to impress on their children the awful monster that uncontrolled fire can be?

How do you impress on juvenile minds who are used to thinking of money in terms of dimes and quarters, the terrific costs of a fire in the thousands of dollars? Or how do you make them realize that once a human life is snuffed out, due to a fire, it cannot ever be restored?

JFK's Berlin Speech Aimed At Producing Psychological Effect

WASHINGTON (AP)—It was clear in President Kennedy's address to the nation Tuesday night that he sought a psychological effect. But it wasn't clear what practical effect can there be in increasing the armed forces by only 217,000 men.

At least he indicated the United States may have reached a turning point.

For years now this country has simply been reacting to Russian actions, dancing when the Russians called the tune. Judging from Kennedy's talk, the United States will now start showing some initiative in dealing with the Soviets.

BUT HIS ADDRESS, tough as it was in warning the Russians they can't take Berlin without a fight, still left the door wide open for a conference with them to settle the dispute peacefully.

At one point Kennedy even indicated the West might be willing to make concessions—but not major ones—to avoid conflict. Just how far he is willing to go with concessions—or being tough—is for the future.

But there could be no doubt he had three targets and three psychological aims:

1. The American people—to prepare them perhaps for rougher things to come by telling them the administration intends to take a firm stand on Berlin, even if it means a military showdown with Russia.

2. The Russians — to let them know, if they think the allies lack the will to fight and that threats can scare and split them, that they have war on their hands if they push too hard.

3. The allies — to stiffen their backbone, by putting the United States firmly beside them, and at the same time needle them, even embarrass them, into doing more for their own defense by increasing their own military preparations.

WITH ALL THIS said, the question remains:

Are the Russians going to be impressed by Kennedy's announcement he is adding 217,000 men to the armed forces—particularly when he didn't say he's sending them to Europe where the Russians far outnumber the allies in ground forces?

If they are impressed it will probably be more by Kennedy's expressed determination not to be pushed out of Berlin, leaving it up to them to guess what kind of force the United States would use to stop them.

In any showdown it is unlikely Kennedy would try to stop the Soviets with ground troops.

Two years ago—which was the last time the Russians threatened Berlin — President Eisenhower rejected arguments of his critics that the United States should make a big ground-force buildup in Europe to chill Russia's blood.

He said March 11, 1959 that such a build-up was unnecessary because "we are certainly not going to fight a ground war in Europe." This could be interpreted as meaning that if war came it would have to be a nuclear one.

JUST A FEW MONTHS after that Kennedy—on Dec. 9, 1959, while he was still a senator — was asked if the United States was in a position to fight any kind of war for Berlin except a nuclear one? He said no.

It's possible he has changed his mind, for he said Tuesday night "we intend to have a wider choice than humiliation or all-out nuclear action."

San Rafael Throws Out State Tourney

San Rafael Parks and Recreation Commission yesterday told the California State Semi-Professional Baseball Tournament to pick up their bats and balls and play elsewhere. The remaining games on the 1961 schedule have been booted out of Albert Park.

The announcement was made late yesterday by Joseph Rodota, director of the city's parks and recreation commission after a meeting with commissioner Carl J. Brown, Paul Richards, manager of the city's Chamber of Commerce, and State Baseball Commissioner S. L. "Brick" Swegle.

Swegle last week pulled a quick shift and re-scheduled the tournament's final playoff series from San Rafael to Eureka. He did not consult any San Rafael authorities, and told Richards that he "had the prerogative as commissioner to do this without consulting anyone."

He told the group that he was committed to people in Eureka and had already sold tickets to the re-scheduled playoff game. He refused to change his plans and did not mention the fact that he also had made commitments to San Rafael, according to Rodota.

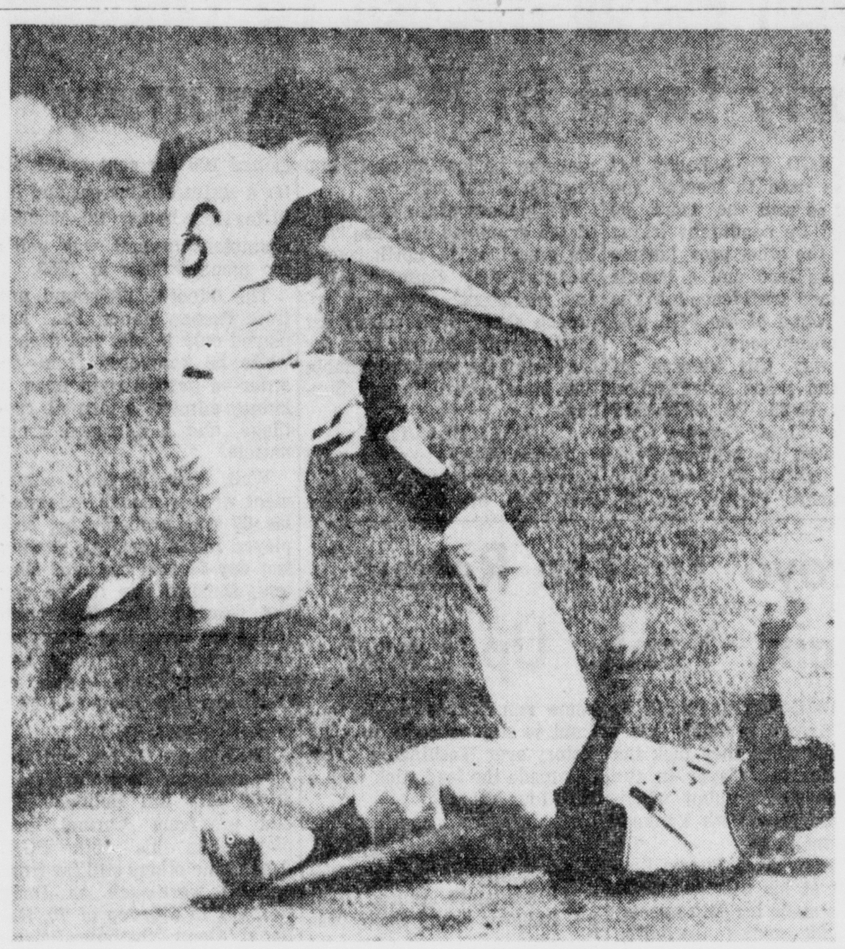

Richards said that Swegle's reasons for switching the location of the game was that "he feels he is assured of drawing a bigger gate at Eureka because a local team (Humboldt Crabs of Eureka), who won the first half of the tournament, will be in the playoffs."

Rodota, speaking for both the recreation commission and the chamber, listed five reasons why no more games will be allowed at Albert park this season. "The tournament is not being played as originally scheduled, and this is a violated contract; no consideration had been given the second half winners; local support will not be able to see the championships; there was no consultation with any of the park commissioners regarding the change, and it is unfair to local fans to support the preliminaries and be denied the championship game."

Games for the 24 teams and 400 players in the tournament had originally been scheduled for San Rafael where the first half of the tournament has been played. Among them are many clubs, of the Bay Area and south, far from Eureka.

Tonight's game was to originally have been between the Wright Lighting of San Jose and the Hatzell Radio of El Cerrito, but the latter team—defending champions — withdrew from the tournament this week because of commissioner Swegle's action. The Oakland Oaks were to replace El Cerrito in tonight's cancelled tilt at Albert Park.

KTIM news reporter Karl Barron found out from Swegle yesterday that the commissioner may try to get the teams together at a Richmond Park, and still have the playoffs at Eureka between Humboldt and the winner of the second half.

Marin Colts Still Alive In Tournament

I-J SPECIAL REPORT

ATWATER—Marin All-Stars kept their title ambitions alive here last night by whipping Westside of the San Joaquin Valley 7-2 in the Sector Colt Baseball Tournament.

Marin returns to action at 5:30 p.m. today against North Sacramento with the loser to be eliminated and the winner slated for more weekend competition. San Jose, the defending world champion which blanked Marin 3-0 Wednesday night, scored its second straight shutout last night, 6-0 over North Sacramento.

Johnny Walker turned in a stellar pitching performance last night with a neat two-hitter as his mates capitalized on four Westside errors to even up their tournament record here at one win and one loss.

Walker was in trouble only in the fourth inning when he gave up both Westside hits and both runs.

BIG RALLY

By that time, however, Marin had the situation pretty well in hand with one run in the second inning and five big markers in the third.

Marin's first tally came when Fred Mack singled, Ray Maher walked and an error on Rick Basco's grounder scored Mack.

The winners got only one hit in the third, but three errors opened the gates for the five runs. Here's the rundown: Rick Miller got a single, Dave Perlis walked, a throwing error on Terry Jarcik's bunt scored Miller, Mike Telegin walked to load the bags, Mack's sacrifice fly scored Perlis, an error on Ray Maher's grounder scored two more runs and still another bobble on Rick Basco's bouncer scored the fifth run of the inning and gave Marin its 6-0 lead.

HAMMOND SCORES

Marin scored its final tally in the fourth when John Hammond singled, stole second, went to third on Miller's ground out and scored on Perlis' 400-foot sacrifice fly.

Marin collected seven hits, two by Jarcik and one each by Hammond, Miller, Perlis, Telegin and Mack.

Manager Ray Maher Sr. will start either Perlis or Tom O'Neill on the mound tonight. Also available is the versatile Mack, although he pitched Wednesday night and caught seven innings last night.

Outfielder John Feerick, whose arm was injured by a pitched ball Wednesday night, has improved and may be available for pinch hitting duties if necessary tonight.

Perfect Game Hurled In Li'l Loop Playoff

Eighteen batters up, 18 batters down!

That was the perfect pitching performance last night by Jim Garrett as he pitched the Golden Gate All-Stars into the finals of the District 3 (Marin County) Little League All-Star Tournament.

The Golden Gaters from the Presidio and Southern Marin military bases will battle Novato tomorrow for the district title at the Twin Cities park in Corte Madera starting at 3 p.m. In a 1 o'clock opener of a double-header Mill Valley American League will battle Marinwood for consolation honors.

Winner of the Golden Gate-Novato game will go to Sonoma next week for the Sectional Tournament.

KTIM BROADCAST

Both of tomorrow's games will be broadcast by Radio KTIM with Ted Mitchell and Karl Barron describing the action.

Garrett's perfect no-hitter was a brilliant performance similar to Don Larsen's "perfecto" in the World Series. Not a Mill Valley player reached first base as Garrett struck out 14 and didn't issue a walk.

Novato's Frank Perachiotti wasn't much less sensational than Garrett as he pitched a one-hitter and struck out nine in his 12-1 rout of Marinwood in the other semi-final last night.

Leading Novato's 10-hit attack were Jerry Gaier with three hits in four at-bats and Tom Owens with two for two.

Tomorrow's final looms as a low scoring duel as Golden Gate and Novato boast great defensive records in tournament play. Golden Gate has scored three shutouts and allowed only three hits while Novato has given up only one run and three hits in three games.

Hanley Discovers Slippery Rock Football Teams Really Do Exist

HANLEY

SLIPPERY ROCK — This is not a mythical town. And we haven't jumped the Giants whom we will rejoin in Philadelphia tonight. We drove the 51 miles from the heart of Pittsburgh yesterday to this little Pennsylvania town to fulfill a secret ambition—write a column under a Slippery Rock dateline and, of course, confirm personally that such a place existed.

Like thousands of non-dues-paying alumni of Slippery Rock State College, we never felt the Saturday football scores were complete until Slippery Rock reported. And, like the same thousands, we always thought the Rocks were inserted in the weekly scores merely for amusement purposes.

Well, don't you doubt any longer. There not only is a fine college here, but it has been here since 1889. And the Rocks do have a football team, two of them, in fact—their own and the Pittsburgh Steelers who just pitched training camp here. For the next three weeks there will be a Slippery Rock dateline on Steeler stories.

IF YOU EVER get back this way, it's no trick at all in finding this elm and oak shaded college town that lies snug by Slippery Rock Creek, a good-sized stream that lures Pittsburgh vacationers much in the same fashion the Russian River beckons to the Bay Area. Just take State Route 8, heading north from Pittsburgh's golden triangle where the Monongahela and Allegheny meet to form the Ohio. Keep going through the little town of Butler, but when you reach Stonehouse Junction make a sharp turn right and keep going until you see the sign "Slippery Rock, Population 2,563."

We tried to check with the editor of the Slippery Rock Signal whether the 2,563 included the college's 1,212 students but there was a sign on his door, "Gone Fishing Today." Weekly newspaper editors can do that. Our boss, with his daily deadlines, wouldn't look kindly on any such shenanigans by us. Furthermore, a couple of oldtimers told us that the creek really does have slippery rocks.

"THAT'S HOW IT got its name, son," one of them told us with a somewhat tolerant stare that seemed to question our I.Q. which never did have a genius rating. But even in retrospect we don't think it was stupid to ask "How did the town and creek get such a fascinating name?"

Because we felt a bit naive after posing that quite logical question, we hesitated to ask the next one we had in mind. It was: "Do you think the Rocks or Steelers will have the better football team this year?"

THE UNASKED question silently got its answer as we spotted Big Daddy Lipscomb and Buzz Nutter reporting to Steeler coach Buddy Parker. The ex-Colts, who came to the Steelers in the trade for Joe Lewis, Jimmy Orr and Dick Campbell, would make a couple of dandies for Slippery Rock. But it's doubtful Rock opponents would waive on their eligibility.

Big Daddy, never a college man, still has four years of eligibility left. Nutter is out of the question as a Rock candidate. He used up his four years as a VPI star.

DOUBLE-HEADER TONIGHT

Gun At Their Backs, Giant Hurlers Take On Phillies

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Bobby Bolin and Billy O'Dell take the mound tonight for the San Francisco Giants in a double-header against the Phillies with a figurative gun at their backs.

Giant Manager Alvin Dark expects them to win and if they get into trouble, there may be no help from the bullpen.

Strategist Dark laid down a win-or-else edict to pitcher Juan Marichal last night in Pittsburgh and Marichal pitched the Giants to a 2-0 shutout over the Pirates. Dark had told him that it was his game—the full nine innings.

PRESSURE IS ON

So Bolin and O'Dell know the pressure is on again tonight. Bolin faces Art Mahaffey; O'Dell opposes John Buchardt.

Dark announced on his pregame radio show that Marichal would go the distance last night. What came out later was that the manager had called his coaches together after Wednesday night's loss to Pittsburgh and decided on the strategy as a last ditch attempt to bolster a sagging pitching staff.

Marichal took the mound and the bullpen was empty. The rest of the pitching staff sat in the dugout.

The starter struck out the first three Buc batters he faced. He went on to pitch a five-hitter, but was in trouble a few times.

Twice Dark walked to the mound to have a talk with Marichal. In the eighth and ninth innings only great fielding saved the day for an obviously tired Marichal.

In the eighth, Bill Virdon singled for the Bucs. Dick Groat followed with a walk. Bob Skinner forced Groat and Rocky Nelson popped out after missing a home run by only a foot.

THREAT ENDED

With two away in the ninth, Don Hoak doubled. But Willie Mays, Giant center fielder, caught a deep drive by Bill Mazeroski and ended it.

The Giants scored in the fifth and seventh innings.

Jimmy Davenport was singled home by Jose Pagan in the fifth and Joey Amalfitano scored as Matty Alou hit one that forced out Harvey Kuenn in the seventh.

The Giants got seven hits off loser Wilmer "Vinegar Bend" Mizell and Elroy Face who relieved Mizell in the ninth inning.

San Rafael Wins In Hub Tourney

San Rafael routed San Anselmo 11-1 last night in the San Anselmo All-Star Baseball Tournament's Junior Division with Dave Cooley pitching a five-hitter and Rod Monti clouting a two-run homer.

In the Little League Minor Division game San Anselmo rolled over San Rafael 16-0 as Bill Finke pitched a two-hitter, struck out 15 and aided his own cause with a home run.

San Rafael Football Registration Tomorrow

Registration of players for the San Rafael Rangers Pop Warner League football team will be held tomorrow, 10 a.m. to noon and Sunday noon to 2 p.m., it was announced today.

Parents are asked to accompany boys to the signups. Eligible are boys who will not reach their 14th birthday this year. Weight limit is 80 to 120 pounds.

IRA MURCHISON PASSES EXAM

The San Francisco 49ers and rookie end Ola Murchison got some good news yesterday.

Murchison, 23-year-old former sta at the University of the Pacific, passed an extensive heart examination and has been certified fit to play with the National Football League club. He was one of three 49er candidates ordered to undergo a heart checkup after a routine physical at the training camp here.

The others, veteran halfback Lenny Lyles and rookie tackle Everisto Nino from East Texas State, were being examined at St. Mary's Hospital in San Francisco.

He reached 172.977 m.p.h. on one lap yesterday.

Overtime Thrillers In Drake Cage League

Drake Summer Basketball League presented two thrill-soaked performances last night with Pinky's Pizza Parlor upsetting Las Gallinas 61-58 in a double overtime and Billings-Hutchinson downing Roark's 55-49 in overtime.

Joe McGrath scored 26 points to engineer Pinky's triumph while Herb Schreiber and Connie Hoetger each tallied 16 points in the B-H win.

The other game of the night saw undefeated A and E Garage rout Cox Co. 71-49 with Ron Ronsaville leading the way with 19 points.

State May Postpone '61 Deer Hunt

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Gov. Edmund G. Brown has raised the possibility of a postponement of the 1961 coastal deer season in California.

Brown said yesterday that his office had received numerous requests for "a suspension of the hunting season this year."

"The threat of further forest fires in California during the remaining dry months of the year have been a matter of constant review by the responsible departments of state government," said Brown.

He said he had asked the Department of Fish and Game and the Division of Forestry to "draft recommendations for submission to me at the earliest opportunity"—presumably before the regular season opens Aug. 5.

Walter Shannon, Director of the Fish and Game Department, said he would meet at the earliest opportunity with state forester F. H. Raymond to discuss the matter.

"As far as I am concerned, I would not like to see the deer season delayed or closed," Shannon said. "Compared to the total number of forest fires those caused by hunters and fishermen are few."

Raymond, contacted by United Press International in Monterey, said he was undecided as to whether a postponement is necessary.

"Improved weather conditions have helped the fire situation a lot," Raymond said. "But weather conditions always could change . . . there always is a danger of conditions worsening."

Great Weekend For Yachting Fans

By ALFRED MATSON

There are two races on the docket for tomorrow and Sunday that should tickle the fancy of the sailing buff, particularly for those with a penchant for match races; the duels involved in perpetual trophy contests.

Tomorrow's action features the Small Yacht Racing Assn.'s perpetual trophy hassle with the Sausalito Yacht Club in the role of defender and the Richmond Y.C. on the offense.

According to the deed of gift, the winner is decided on a two-out-of-three race series, the first and second contests are programmed for tomorrow, one at 9 o'clock off the St. Francis Y.C., the other at 1:30 p.m. in Richardson Bay.

By virtue of his success in an elimination series John Koenig will mastermind the defense with Jim Enzenperger as crewman aboard the latter's Frenzy Too of the Mercury class.

Bill Borgen will attempt to lift the trophy with the Sea Deuce. Should a third race be in order, it will be held on Sunday on Richardson Bay, following the Sausalito Y.C.'s sponsored SYRA regatta.

The feature evnet of the weekend, however, is the race for the San Francisco perpetual trophy between the defending champion, the San Francisco Y.C. and challenging Corinthian Y.C. on Sunday.

Starting at high noon off the St. Francis Y.C. and in boats of the International one design class, Jake Wosser in the Rutsan as present guardian of the trophy will attempt to defeat the aspirations of his wily adversary, Bob Vidmar aboard his white charger, Gypsy.

A study of the records to date should install the defender as a slight favorite on the morning line. This, the 55th tussle for that venerable silver mug, should be a tight battle, from wire to wire, and one slight miscalculation by either skipper could well be the margin between sweet victory and bitter defeat.

Milwaukee Profitable Town For Pennant-Minded Redlegs

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

There was nothing wrong with the Cincinnati Reds that a trip to Milwaukee wouldn't cure. The only trouble is, the Reds are fresh out of trips to Milwaukee.

In their final game of the season at County Stadium, where they won 9 of 11 starts, the Reds jolted a game loose from the Braves in the ninth inning. Vada Pinson, breaking from third base with the bases loaded, kocked the ball out of catcher Sammy White's glove yesterday for a 2-1 victory.

As a result of that triumph, Cincinnati still holds a one-game edge on the Los Angeles Dodgers who thumped Philadelphia 11-6 with an 18-hit attack.

San Francisco's Juan Marichal blanked Pittsburgh on five hits 2-0, the 10th shutout for the defending National League champions. Chicago knocked off St. Louis again 3-2, using the same combination that won the day before, pinch hitter Bob Will and relief pitcher Barney Schultz.

ONE GAME LEFT

The season series between the Reds and Braves now stands 14-7 in favor of Cincinnati with only one game to go. That will be played Sept. 13 at Cincinnati where the Reds and Braves are 5-5 for the year.

The speedy Pinson was the difference in yesterday's game.

The Dodgers had a real hit carnival at Philadelphia although Manager Walter Alston had to use four pitchers to bail himself out. Roger Craig, third on the line, was the winner. The veteran Gil Hodges came through with a three-run homer in the fifth which put the Dodgers out front to stay. Four more in the eighth rapped it up.

New Manager Coach For S.F. Hockey

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — San Francisco's new Western Hockey League franchise has a coach and a general manager today.

Joseph J. Allen, 50, executive secretary to Mayor George Christopher, was named the team's general manager yesterday at a news conference in the mayor's office.

Hours later, the club named Max McNab, a former Detroit Red Wing, as the new franchise's coach.

McNab, 37, was one of the outstanding players in the Western Hockey League. While at New Westminster, B.C., he was the WHL's most valuable player in 1954-55.

Charles P. Greenstone, a San Francisco businessman who is one of the club's principal backers, said the owners plan an initial investment of half a million dollars.

GREAT FUTURE

"We wouldn't be going into this if we didn't think ice hockey had a great future in San Francisco," Hall said.

The team will play at the Cow Palace, which will hold 12,600 fans for hockey, making it the second largest arena in the eight-team league.

Only Los Angeles' Sports Arena will hold more. The other cities in the league are Spokane, Seattle, Portland, Vancouver, Calgary and Edmonton.

Hall, aware of the sports rivalries between San Francisco and Los Angeles, declared:

"I would like to outdraw Los Angeles. I think San Francisco is a better sports town."

U.S. Star Cracks Two World Marks In Japan Swim

TOKYO (AP)—Chet Jastremski of Toledo, Ohio, bettered recognized world records in both the 100-meter and 200-meter breast stroke today.

The 20-year-old American swam the 100-meter in 1:10.7 during a qualifying heat at the Japan National Swim Championships a few hours after he had breast stroked 200 meters in 2:36.5.

The U.S. breast stroke sensation has clocked even better times at home this summer in both races. They are up for recognition as world records.

His 100-meter time of 1:10.7 was eight-tenths of a second faster than the listed world record established by Russia's W. Minschkin in 1957. Jastremski breast stroked the 100 meters in 1:09.8 earlier this month in America.

He clipped 2.9 seconds off the recognized world 200-meter breast stroke record which Australia's Terry Gathercole set in 1958. Jastremski has a mark of 2.35.3 up for world recognition.

Reader Suspects Dissention As Main Problem With The Giants

CONNOLLY

The letter I am about to discuss was received June 27th. It is what we call in newspaper parlance "loaded." At different intervals I showed it to Al Dark, frosh pilot of the Giants; "Chub" Feeny, vice president, and Garry Schumacher, Giant publicity boss.

All three refused to publicly discuss it. All agreed the writer had a point.

"Do you agree with the letter writer?" we asked.

The answer was a chorus of "no comment."

I'm still packing the letter. Here it is:

"I'm still wondering about the diverse bloods and temperaments and conflicts and lack of quick thinking baseball—not to mention stupid errors," writes my fran about the Giants.

"Alvin Dark seems to have the brains, ability, prior personal playing experience, and understanding of individuals (of his own kind). Plus some needed control.

"But none of these — the money, the managing know-how, can put brains into a player. Physical ability is a requirement of first importance, but by itself does not produce champions.

"I SUSPECT dissension among the Giant players plus senseless rivalry.

"I don't envy Dark and I have had no little experience with some of the types and colors he is contending with on the squad."

The voice you have just heard is that of an Army Colonel, (retired). He has been an athletic coach, manager and director in many countries and has made a close study of the S.F. ball club. I like his comments and follow them with interest and usually with 100 per cent approval.

ASIDE FROM the one remark concerning "dissension," Dark, Feeney and Schumacher wondered if the guy hadn't hit the core of the Giant problem.

Dissension on a ball club can seldom be squelched. But senseless rivalry is a personal thing, hard to detect and harder to handle.

SOMETIME, somewhere the real reason why the Giants look like champions one day and sloppy bushers the next, might come out. I dunno how, when or where but I do know the Giants have never played up to their true potential. And if it's mixture of too many temperaments, then Horace Stoneham, who has the money and the desire to father a championship ball club, had better start doing something about it. Even if it requires a complete house cleaning job or an overhaul of personnel.

Raider Scrimmage

SANTA CRUZ (AP) — The Oakland Raiders aren't wasting time.

Coach Eddie Erdelatz put the American Football League squad through a 45-minute scrimmage yesterday, the first this season.

"It wasn't bad for our first time out. We have a long ways to go yet, but we've got time to get there," he said after the workout.

Wall Plays It Cool To Take Early Lead In PGA Tourney

CHICAGO (AP) — Lanky Art Wall, so used to trouble and playing so well he can't be bothered by conditions irking most of the other pros, takes a one-stroke lead and a bundle of regained confidence into the second round of the PGA golf championship today.

The way this veteran of aches and pains manhandled the par 35-35—70, 6,722-yard Olympia Field Country Club course with his brilliant 3-under-par 33-34—67 yesterday, the Palmers, Players and the rest may be looking up to him the rest of the way.

While many of the huge field of 166 grumbled over the "flying grass" of the north course fairways they claim nullifies any consistent control of approach shots, Wall calmly set about keeping himself trim for the rest of the weekend rumble that is scheduled to end Sunday.

WALL HEALTHY

"When things are going good for you, everything goes good," said Wall, who finally has regained 100 per cent health after a series of illnesses and injuries since he won the Masters championship and was golf's top money-winner in 1959.

The 6-foot-1, 175-pound pro from Pocono Manor, Pa., has played only in bits and dashes while he recovered from—in order—a twisted right knee, a kidney ailment, a torn rib cartilage, and a damaged groin muscle.

Wall, who laughed agreement when someone suggested his 67 was probably his best played round since his sizzling last day 66 won the 1959 Masters, finished late in the day and wrested the first-round lead from defending champion Jay Herbert of Lafayette, La., and chunky Ernie Vossler of Oklahoma City. They had 68's.

STILL IN IT

Little Jerry Barber and former champion Doug Ford were at 69 with Bill Heinlein, 50, club pro from Carmel, Ind., playing in his 18th PGA. Among the others still far from out of it were such as Doug Rosburg in a group of 70, National Open champion Gene Littler in a group of 10 at 71, Player, three-time champion Sam Snead, Ken Venturi, Mike Souchak and Tommy Bolt in a huge contingent at 72, and a grim, disappointed Arnie Palmer in another bunch at 73.

Palmer, Rosburg and Player called Olympia's "flying grass" fairways the worst they had ever played.

"They're ridiculous," said Palmer, who needs the PGA title to complete a four-way slam of the British Open, U.S. Open and Masters championships within the last 16 months.

Arroyo To The Rescue Again, Yanks Up Lead

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Luis Arroyo probably won't get a vote when they pick the most valuable player in the American League, but where would the New York Yankees be without him?

The senor from Puerto Rico was not at his best last night when he made his 40th appearance in 98 games (including one tie) but he finally got the job done.

Ralph Terry, making his first start since July 15 after a bout with shoulder trouble, had the Chicago club eating out of his hand with a three-hit shutout and one out in the ninth. Two hits in a row prompted Manager Ralph Houk to call for Arroyo. Luis walked in one run and let two more score on Camilo Carreon's single before he got pinch-hitter Sherm Lollar to bounce into a game-ending double play for a 4-3 victory.

As a result of this decision, the Yanks opened a full game lead on the idle Detroit Tigers.

Baltimore completed a four-game series sweep over Boston with an 8-5 decision behind Chuck Estrada. The Orioles blasted loose with six runs in the seventh inning, rapping three Boston pitchers for four doubles and a single and collecting three walks, to overcome a 5-2 deficit.

Harmon Killebrew's 31st home run put Minnesota out front to stay en route to a 5-2 victory over Washington. Don Lee made the lead stick with a neat four-hitter.

Bobby Del Greco earned his keep in Kansas City with an eighth-inning home run that beat Cleveland's Mudcat Grant 2-1. Reliever Gerry Staley was the winner.

The Yanks' Roger Maris, who leads the majors with 40 homers, and catcher Elston Howard, hitting .362, were injured. Maris aggravated a pulled leg muscle while sliding out a double. Howard was cut on the side of the head when hit by the backlash of Floyd Robinson's bat. Both think they will be able to play tonight against Baltimore.

Although Estrada was wild he went all the way for the Orioles to win his eighth of the season. Billy Muffett, relieving Tracy Stallard in the seventh, was charged with his 11th defeat.

Lee's victory over Washington came at the expense of Joe McClain who had beaten the Twins three times this season. Killebrew's homer came with the score tied 2-2 in the fifth and the Twins added another in the same inning on a walk and successive singles by Jim Lemon and Hal Naragon.

DICKIE EYES TWO NATIONAL TENNIS TITLES

Dickie Stockton of San Rafael set his sights on two championships in the National Boys and Girls Tennis Tournament today in Chattanooga, Tenn.

The 10-year-old California champion teamed with Richard Bohrnstedt of Redlands in today's doubles finals for the boys 11 age group against Bill Colson of Florida and Randy Verdieck, also of Redlands.

Tomorrow the young San Rafael whiz will shoot for the national singles title against Verdieck in the finals, according to Associated Press.

Mill Valley Lad Gets Hole-In-One

A 15-year-old member of the Tamalpais High School golf team, vacationing recently at Lake Tahoe, shot the first hole-in-one of the season at the Lake Tahoe Country Club course, it was reported today.

He is Elwood V. Frink Jr. of 15 Dorset Lane, Mill Valley. The youngster, playing in a foursome that included his father along with Gene Fowler and P. E. Bailey, all of Mill Valley, aced the 145-yard sixth hole.

Mickey Wright Ties For Lead In Tourney

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Shooting 2-under-par 73s, Mickey Wright and Judy Kimball paced the field of 43 top pros and local amateurs into today's second round of the $7,500 American Women's Open Golf Tournament.

UCLA Tabbed As National Grid Power

NEW YORK (UPI) — Those thuds you hear from the sundeck today herald the fact that fall isn't far away and when it arrives you'll find UCLA in the thick of the battle for national football honors.

The West Coast demonstrated in Washington's Rose Bowl triumph over Minnesota that it again definitely is a power to be reckoned with nationally. The Bruins have the horses to prove it before your summer tan has completely faded.

Each section, the forecasters say, has a potential powerhouse to make a run at mythical national honors.

Syracuse appears once again as the best in the East with LSU bounding back in the South, Texas rolling powerfully in the Southwest and Iowa the best bet in the Midwest to give the rest of the country something to shoot at when they start asking who's the best of them all.

SECTIONAL KINGS

Information culled from such experts as traveling salesmen, bootblacks and bus drivers leads to the studied Fearless Fraley decision that these will be the sectioinal kings:

Ivy League—Cornell.
Big 10—Iowa.
Big Eight—Kansas.
Southeastern Conference—LSU.
Atlantic Coast Conference—North Carolina State.
Southwest Conference—Texas.
Big Five—UCLA.
Skyline—Utah State.

USC A THREAT

The Uclans have the muscles to dominate the whole picture, owning a bruising line and a powerful squad featuring 24 veterans. On the coast, Southern Cal with 23 lettermen could well squeeze into the picture.

Iowa has a solid team with veterans at 8 of the 11 positions and figures as tops even in the rugged and unpredictable Big 10. In this frightening aggregation, Ohio State also looms large with Michigan State as an added upset factor. Independently, Notre Dame looks to take a long stride back with 26 experienced lettermen ready to go.

LSU's strong youngsters could overpower the Southeastern Conference, but they'll have to keep a cautious eye on Mississippi and Georgia Tech, two of the biggest factors in what shapes up as a wide open title race.

North Carolina State is loaded for bear and already they're blowing their horns for quarterback Roman Gabriel. Duke will give them the biggest run for the money, but is hampered by inexperience in the line. Miami shapes up as the top southern independent.

TEXAS BRUISERS

Texas will be a bruiser with its all-veteran team and the top challenge in the Southwest Conference comes from Baylor because of tremendous firepower. Utah State is loaded in the Skyline and among the western independents the Air Force Academy is in for a long fall before winter thankfully sets in.

It shapes up as a fierce season. With scouts from two bidding pro leagues in the stands, the kids will really put out.

FRALEY SIZES UP PRO FOOTBALL

By OSCAR FRALEY

NEW YORK (UPI)—Pro football honors apparently will be spread clear across the country this year and, as the play for pay behemoths gird for another season today, it will be interesting to watch the American League closing in on the long-established National League.

The National League naturally still holds a talent edge on its sophomore challenger. This is reflected in the fact that it stacks up as a four-team race in each of the two NFL divisions.

But this time around the AFL battle figures to be of such a calibre that it, too, will attract a new horde of fans.

The National League should see the Cleveland Browns, St. Louis Cardinals, Philadelphia Eagles and New York Giants all battling for the top spot in the Eastern Division. The pick here is the Browns.

In the Western Division, the race will be among the San Francisco 49ers, Baltimore Colts, Chicago Bears and Green Bay Packers. It says here that the 49ers will nose out the Colts.

Over in the rival American League, the New York Titans, Houston Oilers and Buffalo Bills are regarded as all in the Eastern Division Scramble, with the Titans the choice to take the title.

The Dallas Texans and Denver Broncos should make the big run in the Western Division and the Broncos are selected to emerge on top.

In the NFL, the Browns are ripe to return to the top. They have a young, remodeled team which pleases coach Paul Brown and the gleam in his eye is prophetic of things to come.

49ER ASSETS

In the West, the 49ers have a great defense and their "shotgun" offense well may be the answer. The Bears have picked up speed with Billy Wade at quarterback. Green Bay is, of course, a threat to repeat with good lines and fine scoring punch in Paul Hornung and Jim Taylor. And the Colts have plugged some costly offensive holes.

The FISHIN' FOOL

By RALPH STEVENS,
I-J Fish and Game Writer

Striper Striving Slow In Some Spots, But Terrific In Others

STEVENS

High winds and rough water inside the Golden Gate have kept striper striving down in many of the usual haunts. But when and if sectors where the water was fairly calm or when the fishing was done at times of the day before or after the strong winds, a lot of activity resulted.

For example: On the upper Marin side of the San Pablo Bay from the China Camp area to the mouth of the Sonoma Creek, practically no boats were out, hence no reports of fish taken. Rough water kept most of the regulars away from the Sisters, but one couple, Phyllis and Russell Whitney, bucked the elements on Saturday evening and, as usual, made the grade. Landed five bass in the eight-to-ten-pound class.

Tony Caruso of Caruso's place at Sausalito reported salmon fishing spotty to slow over the weekend and on Monday and Tuesday. High boat only unloaded eight salmon. On Wednesday, however, salmon trolling northeast of the Farallones came back fairly strong.

CARUSO REPORTED that one boat, the MaRu, trolled for bass and collected 18 fish to 12 pounds, limits for the six passengers. Best lures were White Bug-eyes and Gold-and-white Hullas.

Incidentally, the good ship Mi-Three will make a rockfishing trip to the islands on Sunday. If interested in having a seat, phone Caruso's.

I called Nadine Lesslie of Dowrelio's Harbor at Crockett. "How's fishing?" I asked. "Terrific!" she gurgled and proceeded to cite facts and figures. Surprisingly, two boats, the Happy Days No. 4 and the Millie Linn, took some nice bass on bait in spite of the mean weather. Last Saturday one of these boats came to dock with nine bass to eight pounds and the other had eight bass to nine pounds. On Sunday, the Happy Days came in with seven bass to nine pounds and the Millie Linn unloaded twelve to eight pounds on bait.

WHAT NADINE meant by her "terrific" comment was the evening trolling. For the past six days the boats have averaged a bit better than two bass per rod.

DAVE JOHNS of Lee Anderson's Bait House in Oakland, reported some hot news of early morning trolling. The Cherokee landed 18 bass to 14 pounds trolling the Red Rock sector; the Harbor Rocket netted 10 limits from the Southampton Shoals on Monday, 5 limits to 10 pounds off Point San Pablo on Tuesday and 7 limits to 9 pounds on Wednesday. All early in the morning. The boat Troller is another craft that has been cleaning up in the early a.m. Five limits on Sunday, 7 on Monday and 14 bass on Tuesday to 17 pounds—all from the Racoon Strait region. The R.S.P. took 8 to 11 pounds on Tuesday.

JOE NAVARRO of Castro Valley called to report a local trio, Mark Rick and Adolph and Doug Olander, collecting six bass by 10 a.m. in the Red Rock area; Miles Curtis and Pat Curran landed limits of catfish out of Del's on Old River; Audrey and Mabel Heyer took limits of bass in the Port Chicago area Monday; Ray and Myrtle Anderson limited with bass to six pounds out of McAvoy; Everett Fisher and his 13-year-old son, Edward, took five stripers to five pounds on bait near Martinez, and Frank Sequeria and friend Angler Groulx took limits of cats in the 7 Mile Slough region.

SPECIAL NOTE—Just heard Jimmy Vitero on my Halicrafter, tell about landing a hefty Chinook. Jimmy's scales (registered to 40 pounds) couldn't weigh it. Estimated to be between 45 and 50 pounds. Lots of big salmon landed Wednesday.

BEGINNER'S LUCK—51-POUND TROUT

Paul Oedekerk of South Bend, Indiana, proudly displays the 51-pound, 4-ounce lake trout he pulled from "Gods Lake" in Northern Manitoba. This summer marked Oedekerk's first try at fishing. The monstrous catch won him a wager with a friend who last year boated a 46-pound trout from the same lake. Novice Oedekerk had bet he could do better—and he sure did! (AP Wirephoto)

A.L. Changes 4 Pitchers On All-Stars

BOSTON (AP)—Manager Paul Richards of Baltimore, obviously looking for pitching help, changed four of his hurlers on the American League team for the second 1961 All-Star game in Boston next Monday.

The lineup for the July 31 game was announced by American League President Joe Cronin today.

American League pitchers were thumped for 11 hits in the National League's 5-4, 10-inning victory in San Francisco July 11, the 10th victory in the last 14 games for the National.

Richards, permitted to change any or all of his pitchers for the second game, shifted to relief specialist Luis Arroyo of the New York Yankees, Barry Latman of Cleveland, durable Camilo Pascual of Minnesota and rookie right-hander Don Schwall of the Boston Red Sox.

They replace Mike Fornieles of Boston, Frank Lary of Detroit, Jimm Perry of Cleveland and Billy Pierce of Chicago.

Holdover pitchers from the first game are Jim Bunning of Detroit, Dick Donovan of Washington, Whitey Ford of the Yankees, Ken McBride of Los Angeles and Hoyt Wilhelm of Baltimore.

Richards, permitted to add three players to the 25-man team that played the first game, selected first baseman Roy Sievers of Chicago and Bill Skowron of New York and outfielder Tito Francona of Cleveland.

NIGHTMARE FOR A DICTATOR

How Berlin Refugees Trouble Nikita

AREA OF CRISIS—This map of Berlin outlines the East and West sectors of the former German capital. The city's entirely surrounded by Red-dominated East Germany. Thousands of East Germans are pouring into the Allied sector of West Germany. Stalinallee is the principal street of East Berlin, and although rebuilt, resembles a drab Soviet city compared to the sparkling main street of West Berlin, Kurfuerstendamm.

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst

A new element is entering the Berlin crisis.

It suggests new trouble for Nikita Khrushchev, and grave decisions by the Western Allies as well.

It is the human element, which must give nightmares to dictators but to which every world leader must give consideration.

As the flow of East German refugees through West Berlin continued and reached an unprecedented high of 22,000 in the last month, headlines reported East German unrest at a pitch unequalled since the 1953 revolt.

BARBED WIRE

For 16 years East Germans have had only to look across the barbed wire and the minefields dividing East and West to see the contrast between oppression and freedom, misery and growing plenty.

Under the ordinary, extraordinary circumstances of the cold war, Khrushchev might have expected his latest ultimatum against Berlin to follow a reasonably prescribed course.

This would involve the customary threats, followed by a stern Allied reaction, to be followed in turn by a conference of foreign ministers and possibly by another summit.

East German resistance to communism has ranged from the passive resistance of the forcibly collectivized farmers to the flight of more than three million others.

WORKERS THREATEN

In between was the revolt of the East Berlin construction workers which spread through East Germany in 1953. This week the construction workers were threatening again.

In a letter whose authenticity the West Berlin newspaper Kurier said was assured, they warned Khrushchev:

"... Remove your hand from the free part of our city. Have no illusions. We will never allow it if you dare to try to take over West Berlin one of these days."

A large part of Khrushchev's success in keeping the Western Allies off balance has been the flexibility of his foreign policy. That flexibility already has been impaired by his quarrel with the Red Chinese, and might be further reduced in case of a desperation move either by the East German regime or the German workers.

U.S. PREPARATIONS

What Are Future Moves In Crisis?

By JOHN HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Kennedy administration was reported today to be holding in reserve a wide range of military and diplomatic actions which may be taken by the United States and its European allies as the Berlin crisis develops.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk will try in Paris next week to get firm agreements with Allied foreign ministers on a succession of steps designed in part, at least, to give the Western powers some initiative in dealing with the Soviet Union on the Berlin problem.

The foreign ministers meeting involving the United States, Britain, France and West Germany begins Aug. 5. It may lead to a Western summit conference of President John F. Kennedy, French President Charles de Gaulle and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan.

Ultimately if East-West negotiations over Berlin produce any progress toward ending the crisis, diplomatic exchanges could lead to a summit conference with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev. At the present, however, that is more a possibility in the background of official thinking that a serious long-range prospect.

Administration informants said Kennedy's Berlin action program laid before the nation Tuesday night was only a starter. They said that what Kennedy and Rusk contemplate is a series of steps which will be put into effect as the maneuvering between the Western powers and the Soviet Union over the future of Berlin takes shape in coming months.

Possible future moves on the military side include sending reinforcements to NATO defenses in Europe and speeding up the mobilization of U.S. strength if circumstances seem to require.

On the diplomatic side, concern in the State Department and the White House now is centered on the development of specific proposals which the Western powers can make to the Soviet Union.

Rusk refused yesterday to give any indication of what form these proposals might take. But he would not rule out any possibility such matters as removing "irritants" to the Soviet Union in the operations in West Berlin.

Rusk declined to specify even what "irritants" the West might be willing to negotiate with the Soviet Union.

W. Germany May Raise Troop Level

BONN (UPI)—West Germany's reply to President John F. Kennedy's call for action on Berlin probably will be to bring its eight army divisions up to strength, a defense ministry spokesman said today.

The spokesman said it still was uncertain just how this would be done but the government has no intention of either extending the 12-month conscription period or calling up reserves.

The Bundeswehr (armed froces) now number 311,000 men. The army is formed into eight divisions, all under NATO command. Three more divisions are to be activated and placed under NATO command by the end of this year, and a 12th sometime next year.

The main problem, defense minister sources said, is that most of the eight divisions now in being are only at 70 or 80 per cent of authorized strength —below the level of the five American divisions stationed in this country.

Larger callups of draftees could fill out the divisions quickly but this would have a short-range effect.

The more pressing need is for long service non-commissioned officers and specialists.

Only an estimated one million people inhabit the Mongolian Republic, a windswept, desolate country that covers more territory than Alaska.

Assembly Interim Unit Appoints Consultant

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—Donald E. Weber of Sacramento was appointed consultant to the Assembly Interim Committee on Industrial Relations, Assemblyman Edward E. Elliott (D-Los Angeles), the committee chairman, said.

Weber practiced law in Chicago for 14 years, worked for the Aerojet-General Corp., the U. S. Office of Price Administration and the State Legislature.

DESTINATION MEXICO

Planning, Work Pays Off For Eight Mariner Scouts

Two years' planning and work, including car washing, coat hanger collections, cake sales and making artificial flowers, will pay off Aug. 10 for eight Mariner Scouts.

They will board an airliner for a two week trip to Mexico, where they will spend one week at "Our Cabana" International Girl Scout Camp at Cuernevaca. But first they will sightsee in Southern California and Mexico, beginning with a day of swimming and a barbecue at the home of Debbie Reynolds' mother. They will also meet Miss Reynolds, who is a long time friend of their Mariner Ship 161 leader, Miss Myrna Reed of Corte Madera.

Then the eight girls, their leader, who is a physical education teacher at Redwood High School, and their assistant leader, Jill Hall of San Jose State College, will departe for San Diego and on to Mexico City. There the girls will attend a bull fight, see the pyramids, the floating gardens and the University of Mexico campus and sandwich in a little shopping.

Each girl has earned her own transportation and spending money, beginning fund raising events two years ago when the first plans were suggested. Many will return from serving as counselors in training at Scout camp just in time to leave for south of the border.

When the eight arrive at Our Cabana they will separate into different dormitories to stay with Girl Scouts and Girl Guides from across the world, exchanging ideas for a week with their sister Scouts.

Barbara Carter, Kathryn Preston and Nancy Sparks, San Anselmo; Susan Henderson, Kentfield; Nikki Marculescu, San Anselmo; Patricia Lesko, Greenbrae; Paula O'Connell, San Rafael; and Susan Yaffee, San Anselmo, are the girls making the trip with Miss Reed and Miss Hall. But the younger members of Ship 161 who helped with the fund raising are making plans now for their own trip "someday."

MARIN'S SOCIAL WHIRL

Harold Schuttes, Back In Ross, Entertaining At Dinner Parties

By FLORENCE DONNELLY

The Harold Schuttes, after traveling 10 weeks in Europe, are back in their Ross home and entertaining friends at a series of dinner parties. San Franciscans will be their guests Saturday night. Last Saturday night they were hosts to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cusick, just returned from a trip to Utah, Mr. and Mrs. LeRoi Dowdell, home from a trip through the Northwest, Messrs. and Mesdames Egizio Lenci, Mark Schmid and Emile Reillac.

On Wednesday of last week the Schuttes' guests were Dr. and Mrs. Edmund Mahon, just returned from a week at Tahoe, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Niederholzer, Miss Judy Mahon, Charles Hoppin and Harold Magee.

The Schuttes, who have made many trips to Europe, say the last one was "the best ever." Most of the time they were in Spain and Portugal which they loved, but were in England for the Derby at Epsom Downs. For the races, which were attended by 250,000, they were seated in the marquee where lunch and tea were served. They saw Queen Elizabeth with the Royal Family and were excited as she when the 66 to one shot came in. Only the bookies made money on that one.

IT WAS FUN at Marin Art and Garden Center Wednesday meeting many old friends. A guest of Mrs. Arthur W. (Ellie) Feidler, co-chairman of the Northgate luncheon series with Mrs. Frank (Mary) Baumgarten, was Mrs. Raymond Zanzot. The Zanzots, who left San Anselmo in July 1950, are hoping to return to Marin soon. Ray, who has been serving as a captain in the Navy, has returned to civilian life. The family has lived in Philadelphia, Newport, Washington, D. C. and Haddonfield, N. J. The Zanzots with their son, Douglas, who is going into his third year at the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis, drove west and are staying with Thelma Zanzot's mother, Mrs. Emma Groezinger in San Francisco. When Thelma's brother, Leland Groezinger, and his wife leave for St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 6, the Zanzots will occupy their home on the Belvedere Lagoon. Douglas, who has a month's vacation, had previously been in Europe. The other son, Lt. Warren Zanzot, USN, is on a cruise of the Mediterranean. Ray and Thelma were one of six couples who started the Marin Cotillion and they were active in Ross Valley Players of which Ray was president.

Mrs. Joseph B. (Margaret) Rice said she had a letter from her parents, the Eugene O'Connors of San Rafael, who are on a tour of the British Isles.

Genevieve Kuehl was enthusiastic about the trip she and Al, chief of design for the National Park Service had made to many of the national parks. Al also attended a convention of the American Society of Landscape architects at Boulder, Colo. Mary Baumgarten was excited about the three weeks cruise she and Frank will make aboard an Italian freighter leaving Monday for Vancouver. I sat next to Mrs. William Mosden, the former Eleanor Graupner (We were Mary Baumgarten's guests). The Mosdens, whose home is in Berkeley, would like to live all the year in Marin. With their son, Christopher, they are spending most of the summer at their place in Bolinas. Eleanor said her brother Dolph, (Adolphus Graupner Jr.) formerly of Ross, and his bride, the former Mrs. Stewart Cobb, are living in Berkeley. Mrs. Emile Reillac reported that she and her husband are planning a trip to Central America in September. Mrs. Robert Pendergrass had as her luncheon guests Mrs. Paul Scott Foster, Mrs. Foster's daughter Mrs. James Akins, and daughters-in-law Mrs. Paul Scott Foster Jr. and Mrs. Patrick Foster, and Mesdames Carlos Freitas, Rafael Dufficy and Boris Lakusta. Mrs. Carl Riznik, president of the Auxiliary of the Marin County Humane Society, sponsoring organization of the luncheon, entertained Mesdames Marius Righetti, Wendell Jordan, Helen Reid Simon and Douglas Wilson.

Dior Designer Jolts World In New Line

PARIS (AP) — The House of Christian Dior's new line dubbed "Charm 62" jolted the fashion world for the time during this heretofore ho-hum season.

Dior's young designer, Marc Bohan, showed a line of tight-fitting clothes yesterday in a salute to the string bean that brought applause and comment from the audience. It is the first full-hearted return to a tight-fitting silhouette.

The new look hugs the figure to the knee, where the hemline stops in a tiny flare. The waist is widely hugged by a corselet band or belt.

As second string to his bow, Bohan also made skirts that flared jauntily from the hip. There were some bell and gathered evening skirts, but far more sinuous sheaths.

Many hemlines showed a sliver of knee, ranking among the shortest of the season, and scotching the rumor that the designer might drop his skirts this time.

Hats are tiny head-hugging helmets that frame the brow, hiding all the hair.

Double jackets, a fairly loose one worn over a tightly fitted twin, were the newest idea in suits. Often the outer jacket was hip-length and fur lined to dispense with a coat. The same idea carried over to two-piece dresses, widely belted, under matching jackets.

Dior likes brown, like everybody else, but is fond of grays to pearl, beiges to buff, orange to coral, red, winter white, black, deep blue and green, as well as golden yellows.

Bohan made many all-over beaded or all-over sequined numbers fit to outshine the Christmas tree. The liquid glitter of fishscale sequin sheaths looked poured on.

Although his string bean silhouette carries the season's trends to extremes, the designer manages not to upset any apple carts by direct contradiction. His flaring skirts and cone coats and jackets are not only in step but leading the parade.

The show-stopper was a decolletage that set a new high for a low dip. Worn by an almond-eyed half-Oriental mannequin, it covered only the outer sides of the bosom.

Besides double jackets, Bohan also made double hats, usually a hood or a fur helmet over a head-hugging felt. The biggest beret in the world, in black mink, hung on the mannequin's shoulders.

Teens Plan South Seas Club Party

There's much ado at the Mill Valley Tennis Club as teen-age members prepare for their South Seas swimming, barbecue and dancing party to be held at the club Wednesday night.

Hawaiian style garb will be in order for the festivities starting at 5 p.m. with swimming.

After the barbecue luau the remainder of the evening will be spent dancing to juke box music.

Stephanie Wickham, general chairman for the fun event, is being assisted by Richard Creighton, decorations; Kenneth Clarke, reservations; Gail Harrington, publicity; Patty Creighton, Lynn and Bruce Crawford and Will and Paul Stubblebine.

Teen-Agers Should Be Taught Standards, Live Up To Them

"Last night I looked out a window," a father writes, "and saw our 15-year-old daughter petting passionately with her boy friend. I rushed out and sent him home. I scolded our girl. She was terribly upset, but finally she apologized. Afterward my wife criticized me. She said the only thing wrong with petting is the guilt feeling which comes afterward. She's not right, is she? Should I have ignored what I saw?"

No, you should not have ignored what you saw. Your wife is mistaken. There are more things wrong with petting than feeling guilty afterward. I suggest you have your wife talk with an experienced counselor of teenagers. You'll find one at your nearest high school. Your wife should be set straight before she leads your daughter into serious trouble.

Our children must have standards and try sincerely to live up to them. So must we. When we transgress we should feel guilty. The only way to avoid guilt feelings is to have no standards at all. A few people are that way. They're called "psychopaths." Usually they wind up in prisons or mental hospitals. Some neurotic folks get exaggerated feelings of guilt over their mistakes. They are abnormal. But most people feel guilty, make amends and snap out of it. Thereafter they avoid that particular error.

Teen-agers have strong instinctive urges. Their physical responses come like lightening. They lack control. One of the causes of the rapid rise in the number of unwed mothers today is the prevalence of petting. Remember, take your wife to an experienced counselor of teenagers. Have her listen and learn. Then the two of you can work together to give your girl guidance. She needs it. Good luck.

(Q) "I'm shocked at the cost of having a baby. We'll be in debt for more than a year. Hasn't the cost gone up a lot?"

(A) Yes, it has. A study in New York found the expenses involved in having a baby have gone up 135 per cent in the past 20 years. The one good thing about it is that the care has been improved.

THIS IS WORK?

Gals Are Advisers To Soccer Players

By GAY PAULEY
UPI Women's Editor

NEW YORK (UPI)—Most girls in their 20's happily would trade vacations for the summer jobs Nancy Winslow Parker and Kate Young have—working among 250 athletes most of whom are in that pleasant, eligible bachelor state.

They have been advisers, guides, translators and just generally sisters-confessor to the 250 players from the 14 countries, three of them Communist, at the second international Soccer League Tournament in New York.

Does being surrounded by such a wealth of manhood create any problems for the attractive pair?

WERE WARNED

"We were warned, I guess you'd say, that the players would . . . well, would try to put the case for their country," smiled Kate, brown-haired and brown-eyed.

The "warning" came from William D. Cox, lumber and mining industrialist, who is the girl's boss.

Cox, former owner and director of the Philadelphia Phillies and Brooklyn Dodgers, organized the International Soccer League. He is president of the New York Soccer Club, Inc.

The girls have ruled out dating the players simply because they judge this not in keeping with their assignments.

Officially, Nancy's job is to help promote the tournament. A native of Summit, N. J., she was graduated from Mills College. She formerly worked for independent television stations and the NBC network to pay the rent while she pursued her other career as a painter.

Kate's job is director of recreation and social activities. She was born in Nyasaland, Africa, of Scottish parents there as educators and naturalists. Miss Young first came to the United States at the start of World War II to study at the Greenwich, Conn., Academy for Girls; after the war studied at the University of Heidelberg, Germany, is a sculptress, and has worked as a writer-editor in England and the United States.

NOW THEY KNOW

Nancy speaks French. Kate is fluent in German, French and Spanish.

Neither knew much about soccer before. "I remember playing it in gym bloomers in high school," said Nancy. But they sound as authoritative now about soccer as Joe DiMaggio does about baseball.

"It's the largest spectator sport," said Nancy. "It is like a combination of football and volley ball."

The three Communist-dominated countries are Romania, Czechaslovakia and Yugoslavia. "But soccer is not-political," said Miss Young.

Other countries are Brazil, where a soccer match will pack a stadium as the world series does in the United States; Turkey, Canada, England, Scotland, the United States, Spain, Israel, Monaco (where Princess Grace and Prince Rainier are the subsidizers), Austria and Ireland.

The first section of the tournament began May 17, and the winning team, Everton of England, will compete with the winner of the second section, now under way, in a two-game playoff Aug. 2 and 6, for title to the American Challenge Cup.

The two girls have had no problems with their charges except for a couple of complaints at the Empire Hotel, where they are quartered. One woman resident complained that some of the players on her floor were "barking at my dog."

And the hotel beauty shop asked if the players could stagger their bath hours because all seemed to concentrate on Fridays when her shop was busiest. The athletes were using up all the hot water.

SKATING QUEEN

Joyce Arrington of Pueblo, Colo., formerly of San Rafael, was chosen "Colorado Queen" during the recent North Central Regional Skating Championship in Springfield, Mo. Joyce, a graduate of San Rafael High School, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Arrington now of Pueblo.

Child's Eating Whims Show In Summer Camp Appetite

NEW YORK (UPI)—For an honest appraisal of summer camp food, don't ask the child who's been to one. A child's opinion of chow depends on the fun he gets from camp life in general, says Mrs. Betty Lowenstein of the American Camping Assn.

"If he likes camp, he says the food is divine. If he doesn't like camp, he says the food is lousy," said Mrs. Lowenstein, speaking both as a parent of campers and as a camping executive. She is executive secretary of the New York section of the association, whose members include some 3,000 private, organizational, school and church camps in the United States.

"Children's food preferences at camp follow pretty much the same pattern as at home," she said. "Boys want filling meals of meat, potatoes and vegetables. Girls are fussier. They're weight conscious, even at 9 or 10 years, and they like salads and other low-calorie foods. Hamburgers, ice cream, colas and spaghetti with meat sauce are universal favorites, and pizza is popular with teenagers."

Hamburgers were so popular last season at Camp Glenmere, near Monterey, Mass., that the girl campers chose them in preference to steak and other fancy foods for their final banquet, said camp director Mrs. Sonny Winter.

Steaks and chops are generally unpopular with youngsters, who dislike anything they have to chew thoroughly, said Mrs. Lowenstein.

The chewing difficulty probably results from temporarily missing front teeth, said another camp authority, Marjorie Hicks. Miss Hicks, the managing editor of Camping Magazine, said younger children prefer soft drinks, but share with older campers a dislike of liver and mixtures like stew, chicken a la king and casserole dishes.

With counselors setting an example, children often eat things at camp they scorn at home, added Miss Hicks. And many who learn outdoor cookery go home and teach their parents.

American Modern Furniture Is Big With Simple Line

A term being heard around quite a bit these days regarding furniture is "American Modern." This new style has been a-borning for quite some time.

It is as home to America as Scandinavian is to countries in Northern Europe. What is it? To start with, it is big and weighty. Yet some American modern pieces have softly carved portions to them. American modern is elegant but not formal. In fact, its simplicity and appropriateness are a great part of its charm.

The natural qualities of walnut, rosewood, teak and oak are played up in this style furniture; there is no faked handcrafting. Simplicity, too, is featured in the trims used. These latter are done in plastics, caning and metal.

Cooling Your Heels

Perforation detail that sometimes covers just the vamp of the shoe and sometimes goes completely around to the back is not only cool looking. It lets feet breathe.

One sportswear firm is tooling up for production of stretch skirts. The first models will be straight line, belted, with a waistband having an inner curtain that is elastic.

View Show Will Have Danish Theme

The flavor is Danish, the fashion is Koret—the 1961 fall collection of Stephanie Koret viewed for the first time by a fashion show audience on Thursday at "Fashions With a View" from the Ondine in Sausalito.

The California kaleidoscope of colorful Koret designs will be promenaded before the red and white flag of Denmark in a fashionable, fitting salute to the "Arts of Denmark," the current exhibit of Danish art from Viking to Modern at de Young Museum.

The flavor of Denmark will spice the entire Thursday luncheon when the welcome mat is rolled out for the special guests, the Consul General of Denmark in San Francisco Frode Schoen and Mrs. Schoen.

Joining him at the guest table will be a distinguished Dane, T. Kjiersgaard, of the National Museum of Denmark who is traveling with the exhibit, as well as the vice consul, J. Mogenthen and Mrs. Mogenthen.

National costumes of Denmark will contrast with the Koret 1961 fall collection promenaded by Mesdames Richard Evans, Jack Coddington, William Donohoe, John Jancheski and John Bellamy Jr.

Danish delicacies, and an intriguing recipe book of Danish dishes for each guest, compliments of the consul general, will further enhance the salute to Arts of Denmark.

Cards Correct For Birth Announcement

Sending out of birth announcements is not a must when there is a new member added to your family, but it can be the fastest and easiest way for the busy mother to inform the couple's friends.

Very often today cards for this purpose are purchased from a stationery store and spaces for the names of parents and baby and his weight and birth date can be filled in quickly. On these cards the parents' signatures should use their first names, Jean and Barry Jones.

Should you wish a more formal announcement, you may choose a card a little larger than a calling card size and have it engraved. It should have the parents' names as "Mr. and Mrs. Barry Jones," then on a smaller card with it comes the name of the baby and his birth date attached to the large card by a small white bow.

In no case should the birth announcement be too clever or elaborate. It is the announcement of the baby's birth, not your cleverness in announcing the fact that is important.

If using the engraved card announcement you can make it a little less formal by using pink or blue ribbon to attach the smaller card to the parents' name card.

An even less formal method is the folded over informal card with the printed name of the baby and date of birth on the outside and the parents' name inside. These may be engraved or printed.

Adoption of a baby may also be announced, and in fact, to avoid confusion in the future, it is almost a must. A small card is engraved with "Mr. and Mrs. Barry Jones have the happiness to announce the adoption of Charles William, aged three months." Adoptions are not announced in the newspaper, however.

Upon receiving an announcement of a birth or adoption, you are not obligated to send a gift. But you may if you wish.

THE BETTER HALF By Bob Barnes

Lamps To Become Smaller, Shorter

Tidbits from the 1961 lamp shows: the massive lamp with its matching oversize lampshade is passe. Lamps will be smaller and shorter. Wood bases are being used extensively by lamp manufacturers; even those using ceramics or other materials are finishing the bases to simulate wood.

More and more floor lamps are bing seen, especially the kind that are combined with small tables to serve a dual purpose.

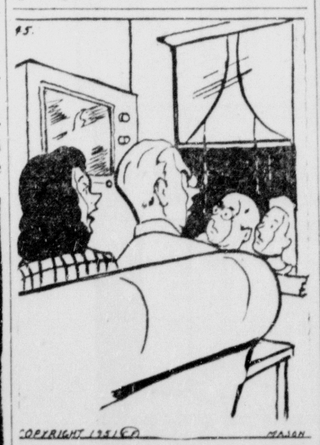

Dividers equipped with lighting fixtures are also popular in the new shows and they are being manufactured in many period styles, but contemporary and traditional lead the divider parade.

Family Houseguests

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Aulgur of San Rafael have as their houseguests their two daughters, Mrs. Emet Huntsman with her daughter, Else Lee of San Antonio, Tex., and Mrs. Jeff Legg and husband from Albuquerque, N.M.

President Of Marin AAUW Active In Volunteer Groups

New president of the Marin Branch, American Assn. of University Women, Mrs. William R. Eastman Jr. of San Rafael, is well known in Marin for her volunteer work in county organizations.

Mrs. Eastman, whose husband is a surgeon, is the mother of two children, Carolyn, 11, and Billy, 6. Along with her duties as a wife and mother, she has served as fund raising chairman for the American Red Cross for three years and is on its board of directors and executive committee. She is on the board of the Marin United Fund and has also been active in Camp Fire Girls as Blue Bird leader and Camp Fire guardian.

Mrs. Eastman feels that membership in the AAUW has a great deal to offer the college or university graduate. "There are study sections in education, social and economic issues, mass media, status of women, international relations, legislation and several sections on different phases of the arts.

"Some sections, such as the Music Listening Section, are open to husbands and wives and many of the general meetings are open to the public."

The new president recently returned from Washington, D.C., where she was a delegate to the 1961 biennial AAUW convention. At the convention, Mrs. Eastman reported "The problems of Marin County in interest fields of AAUW are not unique in most respects. All parts of the United States or the majority of them are concerned with problems inherent in areas of exploding population. These are the problems involving lack of adequately trained teachers on all levels, facilities for educating our children, school financing, the place of academic content in the elementary and high school curriculum, and the ever increasing problems concerning adequate care and housing for the aged."

Business Women At Sunday Brunch

The Business and Professional Women's Club of Marin County held a brunch Sunday at Bob's of Marin, Corte Madera. Elsie Mazzini, club president, welcomed members and theirs guests. Katheryn Keaton reported on the club's booth at the Marin Art and Garden Fair where the members sold cotton candy, candied apples and homemade cookies. A special vote of thanks was given Frank Keaton and Stanley Kosta who provided the picturesque booth. Ada Fusselman told of education plans of the club's three scholarship winners.

Games followed the brunch and Viola Gottschalk, program coordinator, was in charge.

BOWS ARE 'IN'

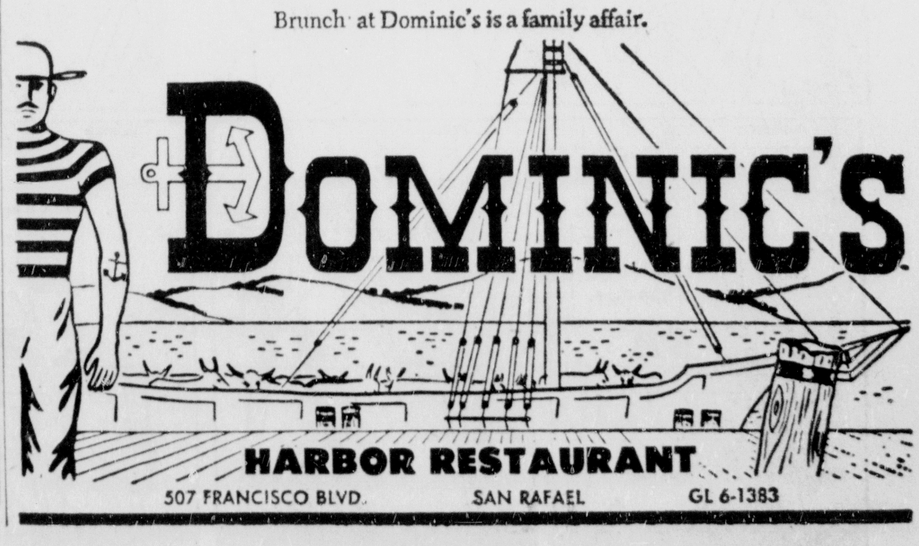

Forecast for the school and college set for fall are hairdos that are casual with a planned disarray of tumbling curls, but they must look as if you've given them some thoughtful care. Pert bows are clipped in. This style is parted on left. Large curl to right of part is rolled to left. Next to it make three more, rolled to right. Fasten with clips. Then on each side place two large, flat ringlets. Fill in top and back with barrel curls wound down. Then make one row of vertical barrel curls from ear to ear at bottom. Set neckline with flat ringlets. When dry, brush thoroughly.

ALMANAC

Today is Friday, July 28, the 209th day of the year with 156 to follow in 1961.

The moon is approaching its last quarter.

The morning stars are Venus, Jupiter and Saturn.

The evening stars are Mars, Jupiter and Saturn.

On this day in history::

In 1914, Austria declared war on Serbia, marking the real beginning of World War I.

In 1932, federal troops commanded by Gen. Douglas MacArthur drove more than 15,000 unemployed war veterans out of Washington where they were camping.

In 1945, the United States Senate ratified the United Nations Charter.

In 1945, an Army B-25 bomber, piloted by Lt. Col. William Smith Jr., crashed into the Empire State Building in New York City.

A thought for today: British philosopher Alfred North Whitehead said: "The human body is an instrument for the production of art in the life of the human soul."

HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Don't Assume Play Is Unusual, No One's Crafty All The Time

Don't take it for granted that your opponents, however expert, are playing craftily. Even the best opponents must sometimes make normal plays.

Opening lead — ◇ 8

When this hand was played in the recent regional tournament in Wilmington, East won the first trick and returned a diamond. South ran the suit, discarding a club.

Declarer next led a club from dummy, finessing the queen. West followed with the eight of clubs, and South had to decide which opponent had started with the doubleton.

If East had started with only two clubs, his king would now be unguarded. Declarer could make the slam by leading a low club from dummy at some later trick. But if West had started with only two clubs, the ten would now be unguarded. Declarer could make the slam by leading the jack of clubs from dummy at a later trick. This would capture the ten and finesse through the king at the same time.

The slam depended on knowing which opponent had started with the doubleton.

GOES WRONG: The actual declarer went wrong in this case. He assumed that West, a good player, had played the eight from a holding of 10-8-7.

He might have been right, of course, but he was taking the short end of the odds. West is equally likely to have 10-8 and 10-8-7 of clubs. Whenever he has the 10-8 he is bound to play the eight without exception. But when he has 10-8-7, West may sometimes play the eight and sometimes the seven — either through inattention or from a desire to vary his play.

As a result, the eight is far more likely to be played from 10-8 than from 10-8-7. When in doubt, assume that your opponents are making normal plays. If they are very skillful and are playing in good form, you will be wrong. You will be right when the normal situation exists, when your opponents are unskillful, and when your skillful opponents fail to make the most deceptive play.

DAILY QUESTION: After two passes, your hold:

♠ K J
♥ A Q 10
♦ A 10 9 5
♣ J 9 5 4

What do you say?

Answer: Bid 1 NT. You are 1 point short of the normal 16 points for this bid, but you have two tens and two nines to makes up for the shortage. For game purposes this is unlikely to cost anything, and slam need not be considered in view of partner's pass.

Marin Ranks 6th Among Counties In June Building

Marin County ranked sixth among nine counties of the San Francisco Bay Area in value of building construction for June, according to figures compiled by the U.S. Department of Commerce.

The Marin total came to $5,288,000, placing this county well under Contra Costa with $9,772,000 but over Sonoma with $3,783,000.

Santa Clara ranked first of the group with $26,608,000, followed by (in thousands) San Mateo, $19,106; Alameda, $16,926, and San Francisco, $11,884.

All nine counties showed increases over June of 1960 but Marin was not among those which increased over the previous month as did San Mateo, San Francisco, Sonoma, Solano, and Napa Counties.

Horsemen Plan Ride Tomorrow

The San Geronimo Valley Horsemen's Assn. members will take a six-hour ride tomorrow over Mount Tamalpais to Laurel Dell and spend the night camping out. They will return Sunday.

The 25 to 30 riders will meet on the San Geronimo Valley Horsemen's Assn. playfield in Woodacre at 7 a.m. The trail boss will be Bill McClelland.

The trail test put on by the association has been postponed from Aug. 13 to Aug. 20, said Cedric Tarr, association member. He explained that a trail test is competition to observe horses' behavior while on a trail.

Milk Strike

CHICAGO (UPI) — Negotiators conferred hour after hour with Mayor Richard J. Daley and federal mediators today in an around-the-clock attempt to settle a dairy strike which has stripped Chicago clean of milk.

Milk was as scarce as diamonds in grocery stores and supermarkets in the nation's second largest city. Housewives who had stocked up on milk when the three-day strike began had to resort today to fruit juice and soft drinks for their families' breakfasts.

Judge Deals Blow Against Chiropractors

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Superior Judge Walter O. Allen yesterday ruled that chiropractors do not have the right to diagnose illness nor to use drugs in their treatments.

In a suit against what they called harassment by the California State Medical Board, a group of chiropractors had asked the court to declare they have a right to act as physicians and surgeons as long as they do not call themselves medical doctors.

The chiropractors said they would appeal Judge Allen's decision.

In a sweeping denial of the group's goals, Judge Allen also:

1. Ruled that possession of narcotics by chiropractic doctors would be a violation of health and safety laws.

2. Ruled against their contention that chiropractors can practice obstetrics and minor surgery.

3. Ruled that a 1922 act permitting them to practice subjects taught in their colleges did not give chiropractors freedom to invade the medical field.

Sausalito Area Fire Trail Is Completed

The Army has completed a fire trail between Sausalito and Fort Baker and will maintain it during the dry season, Sausalito City Manager Charles A. Brown said today.

The Sausalito City Council requested the Army to provide a fire break after a recent large brush fire on Fort Baker property.

Brown said he was informed by Col. M. M. Brown, commander of the Presidio, of San Francisco, the fire break was started on July 20 and completed within a few days.

U.C. Draws Up New Rules On Politics

BERKELEY (UPI)—The University of California has drawn up new rules governing the political activities of student groups.

The university will maintain its "open forum" program for guest speakers on campus, providing these conditions are met:

Membership in the group inviting the speaker must be limited to bonafide students, faculty members and university employees.

The group must also have an active adviser who is on the university faculty or staff.

Groups using campus facilities for "discussion of public issues" must be completely independent of all political and sectarian influence.

I-J GETS SOME UNEXPECTED COMPETITION

Copies of the first issue of the E and J Comet, a two-paged typewritten paper featuring "news for kids," were put on sale at a nickel each by co-proprietors Erik Anderson of 304 H Street and Jon Owen of 200 Forbes Avenue, San Rafael.

Both Erik and Jon are I-J carrier-dealers.

Not only that, but Erik's father is Bryce W. Anderson, the I-J's city editor. Jon's father is Frederic C. Owen, San Francisco advertising executive.

The competition won't last long, though. The co-publishers plan to discontinue the E and J Comet when school resumes.

Newspaper Tossing Contest At Fair

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—About 10,000 newspaper delivery boys will get a chance to prove they don't always toss their papers on your roof or in the roses, on Sept. 10.

And one of the things they'll do is participate in a newspaper tossing contest. The winner will be the lad who always puts it on your doorstep from a moving bicycle at the curb—or somebody just as good.

$1950
If you're looking for the used convertible that's like new, see this one. Original owner—a retired colonel has put only 17,000 miles on this car and has really given it loving care. There's not even a scratch on all white paint job. Car has been garaged continually and you'd swear the black nylon top was brand new. The interior is red leather and even has had clear plastic covers over the leather since new. The carpets don't look like they have ever been stepped-on. Fordomatic, radio, heater, w/w tires and loads of other extras.

Legion Post Urges 'Exodus' Boycott

ALBANY, N. Y. (UPI)—A Syracuse, N. Y., post of the American Legion has urged a boycott of the film "Exodus" which it charged with "aiding in the spread of Communist propaganda."

Eastward Post 1276 also urged Legionnaires attending the state convention here to picket theaters showing the movie and six others, including "Inherit the Wind," "Chance Meeting," "Spartacus," "The Last Sunset," 'On the Beach," and "The Guns of Navarone."

The post charged the seven films "have employed known Communists in some capacity or have subtly preached the Commie line."

'Western' Satire

A satire on the "adult western" drama will be presented by Ed and Betty Keen, comedy team from El Cortez and Showboat hotels of Las Vegas, Nev., at the San Rafael Rotary Club luncheon Monday noon at Dominic's Harbor Restaurant.

Three-fourths of average income families expect their children to attend college, but only one-fourth actually do, the Joint Office of Institutional Research reports.

Italy Orphans Benefit Set In Fairfax

Marin's annual evening of Italian dining and entertainment for the benefit of the Orphans of Italy Inc. will be held at Deer Park Villa in Fairfax on Aug. 23.

Judge N. Charles Brusatori of Marin Superior Court will be master of ceremonies. Mrs. Peter Caletti of San Rafael, chairman, and Mrs. Frank Ratto of Greenbrae, co-chairman, announced that buffet supper is scheduled to begin at 6:30 p.m. Troubadour entertainment and prizes are also included in the evening's program.

Proceeds from the event will go to Father William Carloni's orphanage, which is located near Lake Maggiore in Italy.

Tiburon Group To Ask Funds For Beach

The Tiburon Peninsula Coordinating Council will ask the Marin County Board of Supervisors to seek state funds for improving Paradise Beach Park.

The council voted Wednesday night to request the supervisors to apply to the California Wild Life Conservation Board for pari-mutuel funds which it has available for such purposes. The council seeks completion of a dock for fishing, fencing of the area, and employment of a caretaker, Secretary William Rafter said.

The council will also write the supervisors asking that property owners within 1,000 feet be notified by the planning commission if rezoning is planned. On a recent occasion the council learned no notice had been received by neighboring property owners, said Rafter. As a result no one appeared to protest a rezoning.

A letter will be sent to the planning commission supporting its chairman's suggestion for preserving the "Old Stone Tower" on Paradise Drive. The council will recommend a scenic easement be created at the tower.

Improvement Group Forms In San Rafael

A new San Rafael neighborhood improvement group has filed articles of incorporation with Secretary of States Frank M. Jordan in Sacramento.

The Coleman Addition Home Owners Assn. was formed to "give residents of the area of Prospect, Coleman and Vineyard drives a means to express themselves on zoning and other matters of neighborhood importance," according to Gregory A Harrison Jr. of 209 Prospect Drive, acting president.

Incorporators, besides Harrison, are Robert M. Kell of 195 Prospect Drive and Hugh L. Wallace of 1917 Grand Avenue. A slate of officers composed of Harrison as president, Kell as vice president-treasurer, and Wallace as secretary will be presented to the membership at an organization meeting "to be held in about a week," Harrison said.

The organization's name has already been used once: In protesting to the San Rafael Planning Commission against permitting San Rafael Associates, Inc., to convert a single-family dwelling at 188 Prospect Drive into a duplex.

Harrison said the group does not plan a regular meeting schedule, but will meet as matters needing its attention arise.

Mosk Criticized For 'Dual Role'

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—Senator Richard J. Dolwig (R—Atherton) has added his voice to Republican critics of the Democratic state administration, calling upon Atty. Gen. Stanley Mosk to devote full time to law enforcement, in view of the FBI's reported 21 per cent increase in California crime.

Dolwig referred to Mosk's dual role as attorney general and Democratic national committeeman from California.

"When J. Edgar Hoover says California's number of major crimes per capita nearly doubled the national figure last year, it's time Stanley Mosk stopped playing politics and started preventing crime as he was elected to do," said Dolwig, a member of the senate judiciary committee.

State Tells Earnings From Investments

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The State Treasury earned 37 million dollars on the investment of various state trust funds and cash reserves during fiscal 1960, State Treasurer Bert Betts revealed recently.

On an average day, the state has about 800 million dollars invested in various securities, Betts added.

CERAMIC TILE

Modern ceramic tile comes in a variety of shapes and sizes, and in a myriad of colors that would make a rainbow blush! Easy to keep clean too—just a cloth and a mild detergent restores tile to that "just new" look.

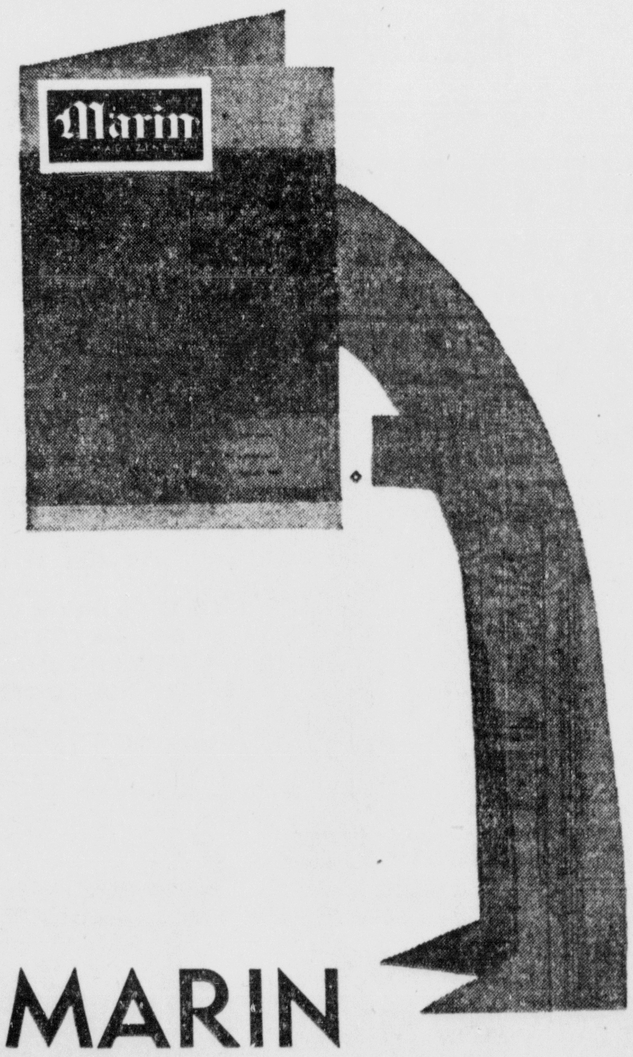

QUALITY

Ceramic tile adds to any room a particular touch of quality unmatched by any other material. One glance is all that is necessary to see that tile complements every surrounding in which it is placed.

VALUE!

Whether your budget calls for a modest installation of ceramic tile, or if "the sky's the limit," you always get full value for your money. An added plus feature of tile is that it will increase the value of your home if you should ever decide to sell.
